PK Steve Aponavicius kicked a 37-yard field goal on the final play and the Eagles beat the Midshipmen 25-24 in the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl and extended the nation's longest bowl winning streak to seven games.

Headed off the field on a stretcher with a broken leg, QB Paul Peterson glanced up at the scoreboard just in time to see kicker Ryan Ohliger take a fake field goal into the end zone sealing Boston College's victory over North Carolina in the 2004 Continental Tire Bowl.

Jolonn Dunbar hoists the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl trophy after the Eagles rallied for a last-second 25-24 victory over Navy in Charlotte.

QB Matt Ryan threw three first-half touchdown passes to lead the Eagles to a 27-21 win over Boise State in the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl. Ryan earned team MVP honors for his efforts.

ACADEMIC SUCCESS

BC student-athletes' achievements in the classroom have become an immense source of pride for the University and its supporters.

Last year's Meineke Car Care Bowl featured the two teams with the highest graduation rates in college football's Division I Bowl Subdivision – Navy (98 percent) and Boston College (96 percent). BC's graduation rate was the highest of any team ranked in the final AP and ESPN/USA Today polls.

BC has one of the top four graduation rates in the nation for its student-athletes, according to federal graduation rate data released last November by the NCAA. BC, Bucknell, Duke and Northwestern have graduation rates of 90 percent or better for all student-athletes from the freshman class of 1999-2000. Federal graduation rates are calculated over a six-year period for each incoming freshman class.

"We are very proud to be among the top four Universities in America for student-athlete graduation rate," Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo says. "We take great pride in the fact that our student-athletes are able to balance their time effectively between academics and athletics. This is a tribute to our coaches and support staff, but mainly to our student-athletes, who work just as hard in the classroom as they do on the playing field."

Boston College's combined athletic and academic success on the football field and basketball courts were lauded this past year in USA Today, when it reshuffled its football, and 2006 final men's and women's basketball top polls according to academic success rate.

Boston College was the only school in the country with its football, men's basketball and women's basketball teams all ranked in the nation's top 10 both academically and athletically. In the reshuffled poll, the Eagles' football ranked number one in the country with a 96 percent graduation rate. Notre Dame (95 percent), Nebraska (88), Florida (80) and TCU (78) rounded out the top five academic-athletic football programs in the country.

Presented annually by the American Football Coaches Association, the Academic Achievement award is given to the Division I Bowl Subdivision team with the highest graduation rate. Boston College has won the award four times — in 1992, 1995, 1996 and 2004 — and has achieved Honorable Mention status 15 times, most recently in 2006.

Once again in 2007, U.S. News & World Report ranked Boston College among the Top 40 Universities in America — Boston College is one of six Atlantic Coast Conference institutions ranked in the nation's top 40, joining Duke, Wake Forest, North Carolina, Virginia and Georgia Tech.

U.S. News & World Report has also honored Boston College as one of the top 20 athletics departments in the country. The magazine ranked each Division I school on four categories: gender equity, graduation rates, win-loss records and total number of sports offered.

LEARNING RESOURCES

Returning lettermen Nick Larkin, Ty Hall and Steve Aponavicius each earned All-ACC Academic team honors last fall.

LEARNING RESOURCES

Boston College recognizes the demands of academics and athletics, and acknowledges that students must be disciplined in their study habits to succeed in the classroom. The University's Office of Learning Resources for Student-Athletes provides academic, personal, and social support services to all varsity student-athletes with the goal that each student-athlete will be provided a fair opportunity to achieve his or her potential of academic, social, spiritual and personal development.

In April 2005, Learning Resources moved into its new home in Yawkey Center. Dr. Ferna Phillips, director, leads a professional staff of six and a tutorial staff consisting of 35 graduate and undergraduate students. Learning Resources offers academic counseling, developmental and supplemental instruction as well as tutorial services to help its student-athletes reach their maximum potential in the classroom.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

The academic Counselors and other support staff members provide much needed guidance and direction to student-athletes by monitoring their academic progress, supporting their academic success in the classroom by promoting self advocacy as well as articulating concerns to faculty, staff and administrators. The staff promotes, recognizes and rewards scholarship and maintains an interdisciplinary approach to providing services.

DEVELOPMENTAL INSTRUCTION

The goal of the program is to provide intensive support and skill instruction through developmental tutoring for approximately 30 of the highest need and most academically challenged student-athletes. The Associate Director, with the assistance from the Learning Specialist and a well trained group of Instructional Assistants, develops an instructional Plan for each student-athlete in the program based on the student's strengths, needs and learning styles.

TUTORIAL SERVICES

The program is designed to assist student-athletes with their course work, while at the same time helping students learn new skills for independent learning. Student-athletes request tutorial support through their academic counselors. "Matches" are made based on need, tutor expertise and availability.

MURPHY FAMILY STUDY CENTER

The study center offers an integrated learning environment for the student-athletes. They can elect to have a quiet space in which to work or join a study group as well as participate in "one to one" tutor relationships. Student-athletes can and do participate in structured study hour programs sponsored with the center. The Center offers both Mac and PC computers for use by the student-athletes as well as the opportunity to bring their own lap top to use in our completely wireless environment. The Center serves as the primary tutorial area for Learning Resources and offers student-athletes an easy, accessible area, close to the athletic facilities in which to study.

The Office of Learning Resources for Student-Athletes works closely with other offices in the division of Student Affairs to promote and provide workshops and seminars on personal, social and spiritual topics to enhance the college experience for student-athletes.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Boston College student-athletes continue to give back to the community, living by the Jesuit ideal of improving one's self by helping others. Nearly one-third of all BC student-athletes participate in some sort of community project.

More than 100 student-athletes correspond regularly with area school children through the Pen Pal Program. In May, the school children get the opportunity to meet their pen pals at the annual Pen Pal Picnic held at Alumni Stadium.

BC student-athletes also visit area hospitals and schools throughout the course of the year.

Larkin Sets The Standard In Serving Others

Boston College prides itself on recruiting top-quality individuals for its football program who excel on the field, in the classroom and in the community. The program consistently ranks at or near the top in graduation rates and has won seven straight bowl games.

Senior defensive end Nick Larkin is a shining example of how many members of the football team devote countless hours serving others. Larkin overcame a physical disability (he was born with inverted arches in his feet) at a young age to excel on the football field and establish himself as a starter at defensive end for the Eagles. He is in the top tier academically for the entire team, and has dedicated himself to community service throughout his college days.

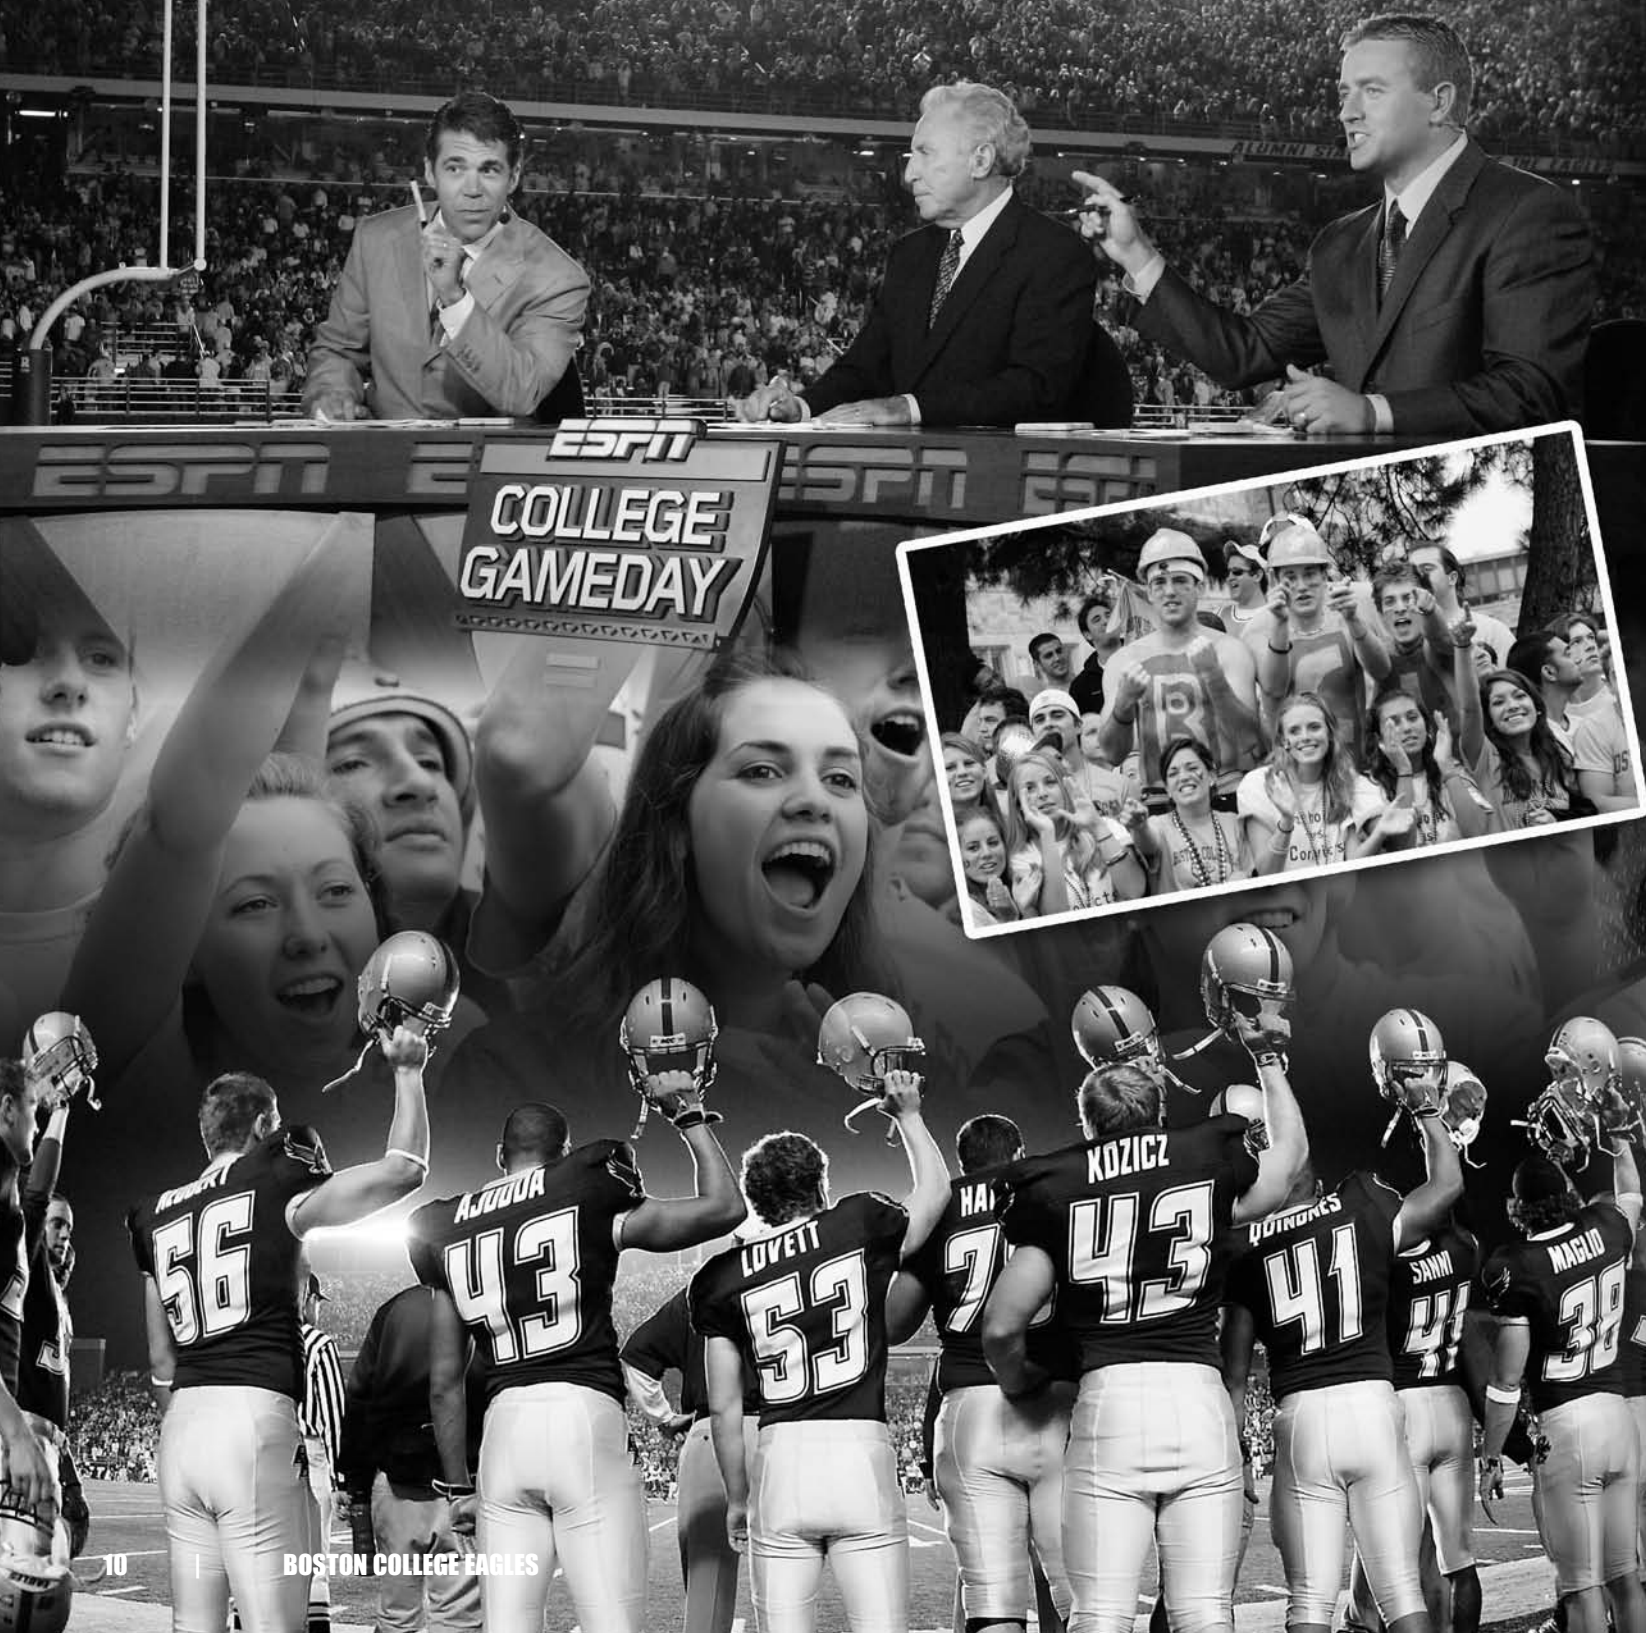

Larkin has spent countless hours as a four-year volunteer at the Boston College Campus School, which serves learners with disabilities, including complex healthcare needs. Also, he has been involved in Boston College's Generation Pulse publicity team. Generation Pulse is a Web site that connects adolescents throughout the United States through writing and art. This year the program is focusing on youth survivors of Hurricane Katrina. It also acts as a support center where children can learn about, and support one another on issues such as depression, drug addition, etc.

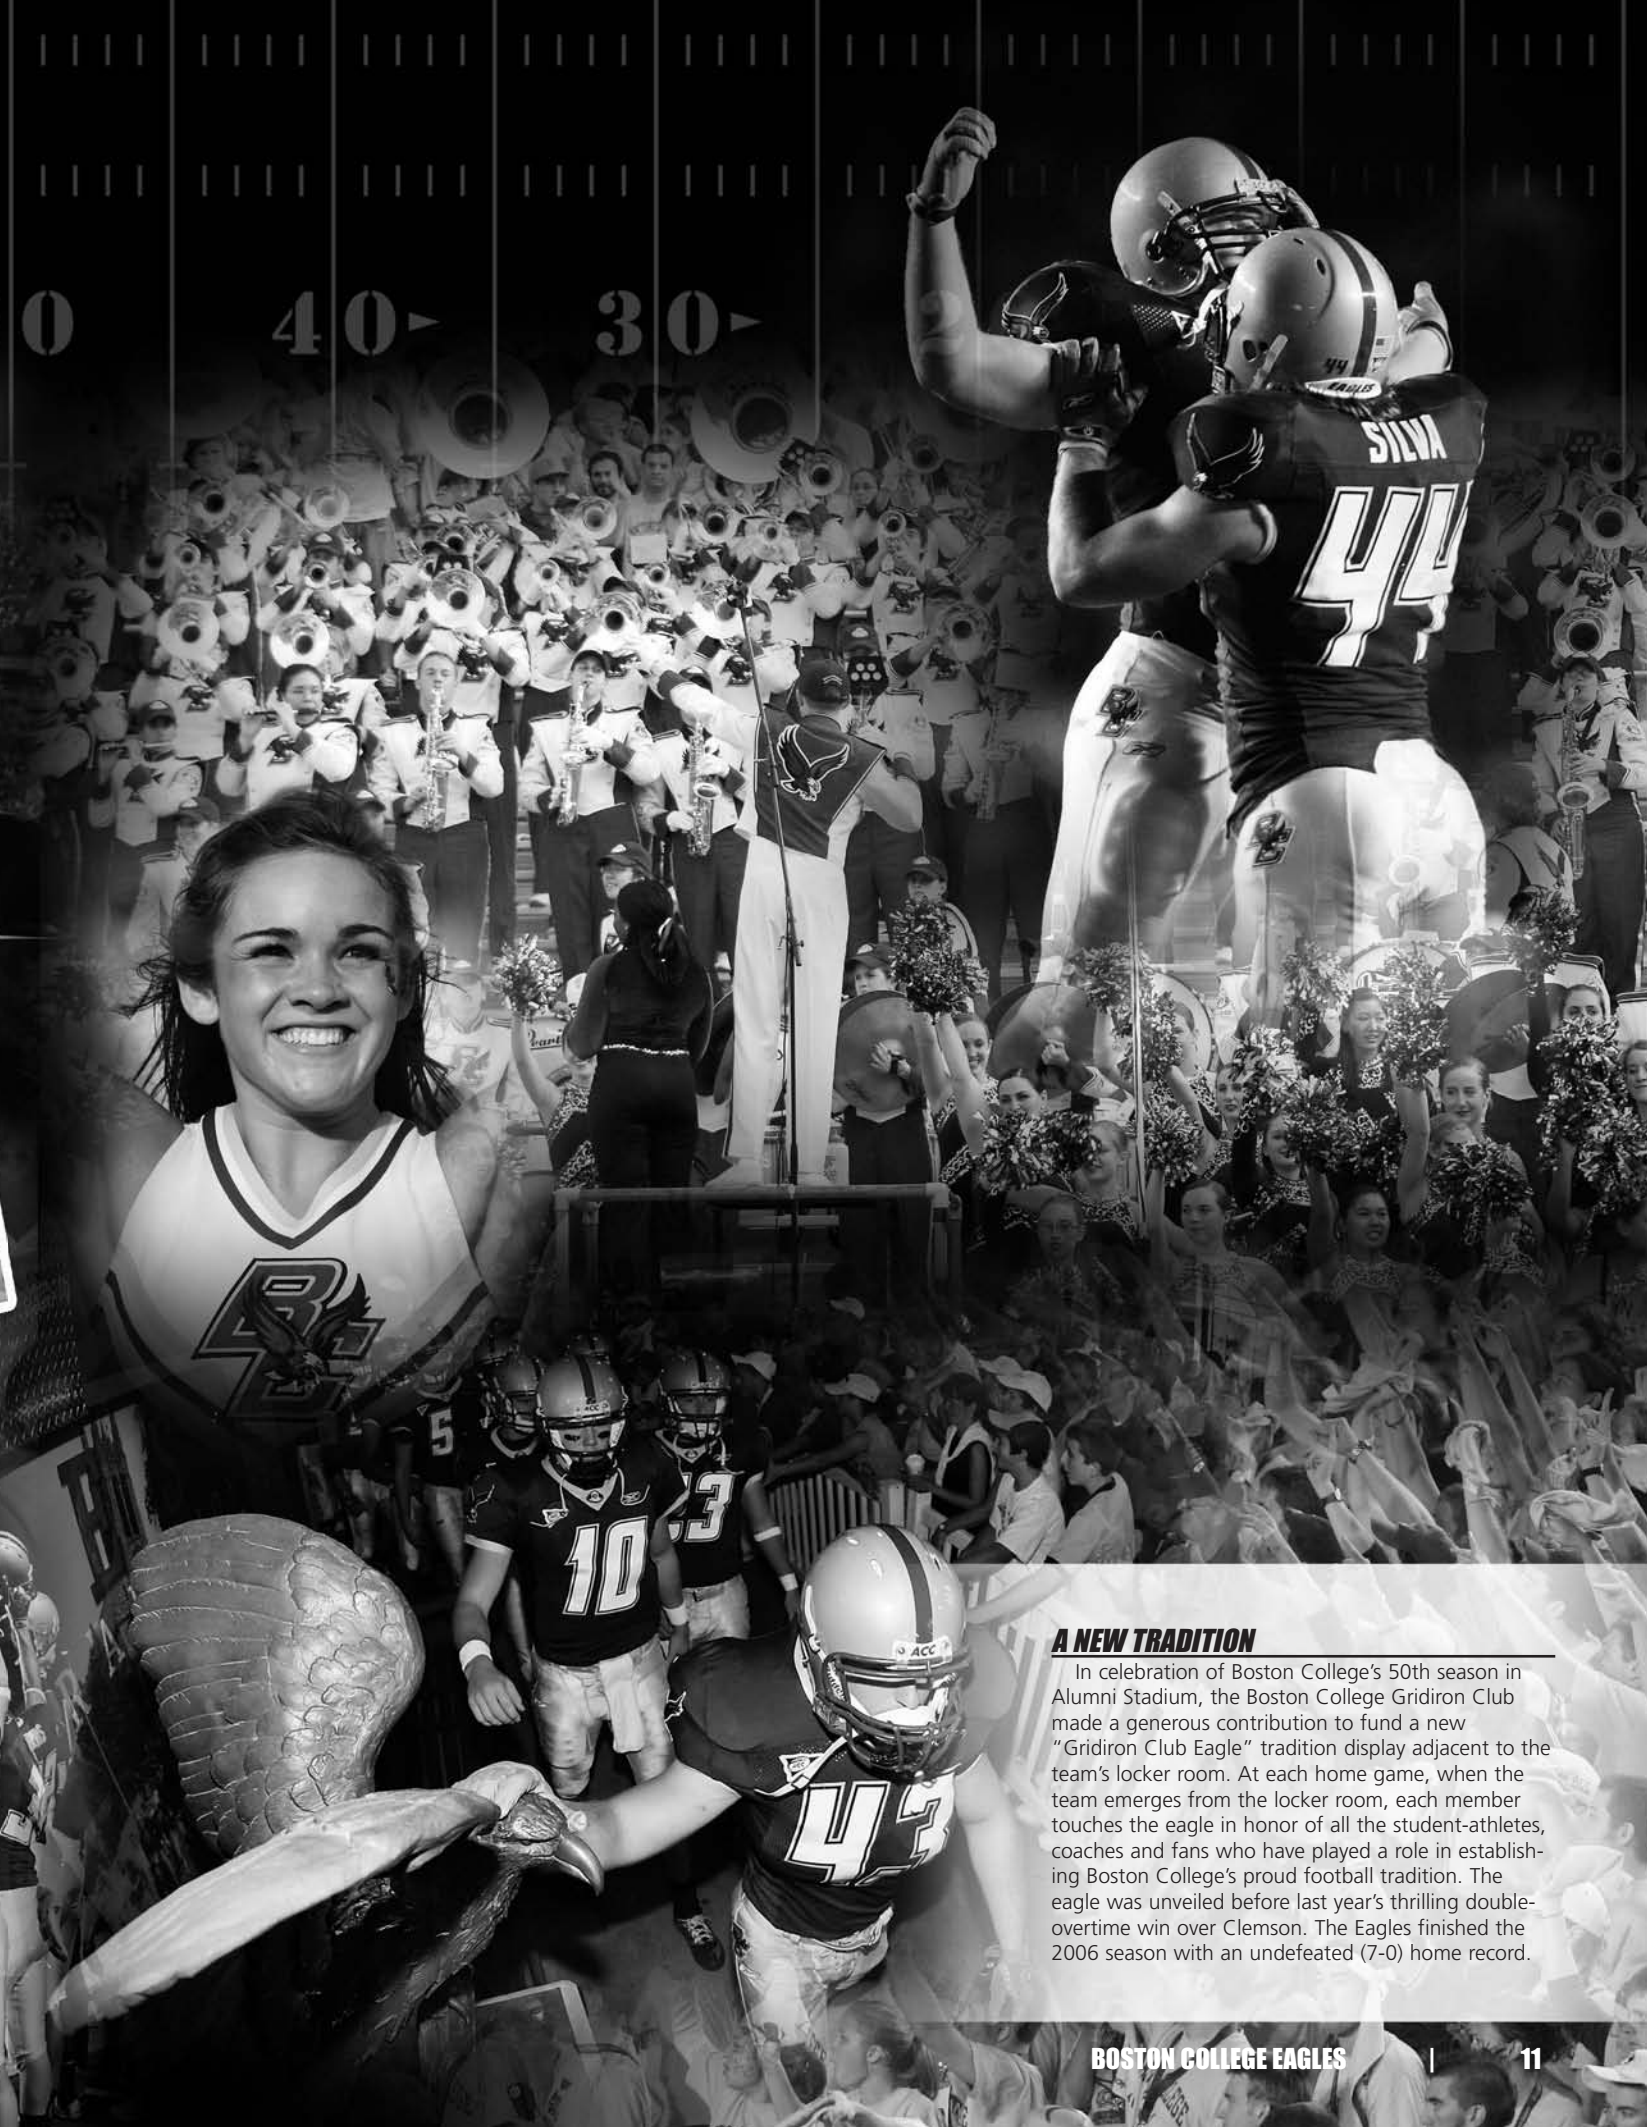

Along with other BC student-athletes, Larkin is a regular visitor to the Franciscan Children's Hospital. He is also a Hopes for Hope volunteer and a regular with BC's HEAR Program (Help Educate through Athletic Responsibility). HEAR takes student-athletes to elementary schools and YMCAs in the greater Boston area to educate children.

GAMEDAY EXCITEMENT

EAGLES IN THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

A NEW TRADITION

In celebration of Boston College's 50th season in Alumni Stadium, the Boston College Gridiron Club made a generous contribution to fund a new "Gridiron Club Eagle" tradition display adjacent to the team's locker room. At each home game, when the team emerges from the locker room, each member touches the eagle in honor of all the student-athletes, coaches and fans who have played a role in establishing Boston College's proud football tradition. The eagle was unveiled before last year's thrilling double-overtime win over Clemson. The Eagles finished the 2006 season with an undefeated (7-0) home record.

ALUMNI STADIUM

THROUGH THE YEARS

With a capacity of 44,500 maroon-and-gold-clad fans, Alumni Stadium is the home of the Eagles.

The current version of Alumni Stadium opened in the fall of 1995.

The roots of Alumni Stadium and on-campus football at Boston College date back to 1915, when the original Alumni Stadium was dedicated. The facility was located on middle campus on the site of today's campus green.

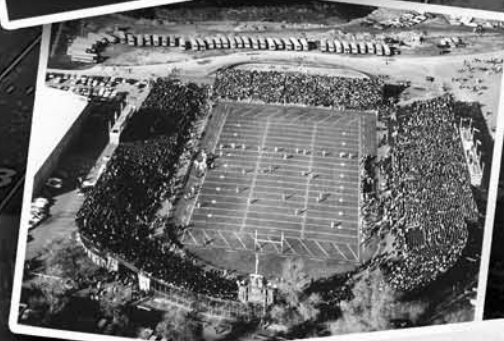

As Boston College enjoyed more and more football success in the 1930s and 1940s, the Eagles moved a majority of their home games to Boston's two Major League Baseball stadiums, Fenway Park and Braves Field (now Nickerson Field on the Boston University campus).

On January 23, 1957, Boston College president Joseph R.N. Maxwell, S.J., announced that a new Alumni Stadium would be built on the BC campus as football no longer would be allowed in Fenway Park. A $250,000 campaign followed and on September 26, 1957, the Eagles played host to Navy in the first game on the site of the present Alumni Stadium before a sellout crowd of 26,000-plus. The new stadium was constructed in an amazing span of 156 days. The game was arranged by then-United States Senator John F. Kennedy, but Navy spoiled the home opener with a 46-6 win.

In 1971, Alumni Stadium was expanded to 32,000 seats and artificial turf and lights were installed. Alumni Stadium was rebuilt again in 1988 as matching upper decks and a new press box were added. These renovations were part of the building of Conte Forum.

New scoreboards and instant replay screens, a new and improved lighting system, a state-of-the-art public address system, new concessions and rest room facilities and a beautiful brick and glass exterior façade combine to make Alumni Stadium one of the finest football facilities in the nation. BC installed a state-of-the-art Field Turf surface in the summer of 2004.

The scenic Chestnut Hill stadium, with the Boston skyline offering a splendid background in the distance, heightens the excitement and enthusiasm that is part of every Boston College home game.

THE BUBBLE

In any season, Boston College student-athletes are able to take advantage of the best in practice facilities thanks to "The Bubble."

The Bubble can handle all facets of football training. It has been a crucial part of the Eagles' off-season workouts, including strength and conditioning, field goals and bowl preparations.

Erected for the first time in 1998 at a cost of $2 million, The Bubble measures 360 x 210' and is 70 feet high. It covers the entire football field and extends a few feet beyond the end zones and sidelines.

THE YAWKEY CENTER

In March 2005, Boston College Football and the Office of Learning Resources moved into the Yawkey Athletics Center, BC's new $27 million, 72,000-square-foot facility. Located behind the north end zone of Alumni Stadium, the Yawkey Center includes new football offices, meeting and breakout rooms, locker rooms, sports medicine, strength and conditioning, equipment room, theater-style classrooms, recruiting and player lounges and the Murray Function Room.

Doug Flutie's Heisman Trophy is displayed in the open with no glass enclosure.

Located in the main lobby, the Hajjar Family Football Museum features a soaring bronze Eagle atop a lighted granite pedestal as its centerpiece. The museum displays memorabilia highlighting the 100-plus seasons of Boston College football.

BC received a commitment of $15 million from the Yawkey Foundation to help fund the new building and other athletics-related improvements to enhance intercollegiate, intramural and club sports. Other benefactors generously donated the rest of the money needed to complete the construction, making the Yawkey Center the first structure on the BC campus to be built entirely with private funds.

0 40 30 20 10

The Smith Family Strength and Conditioning Center is located on the second floor of the Yawkey Center.

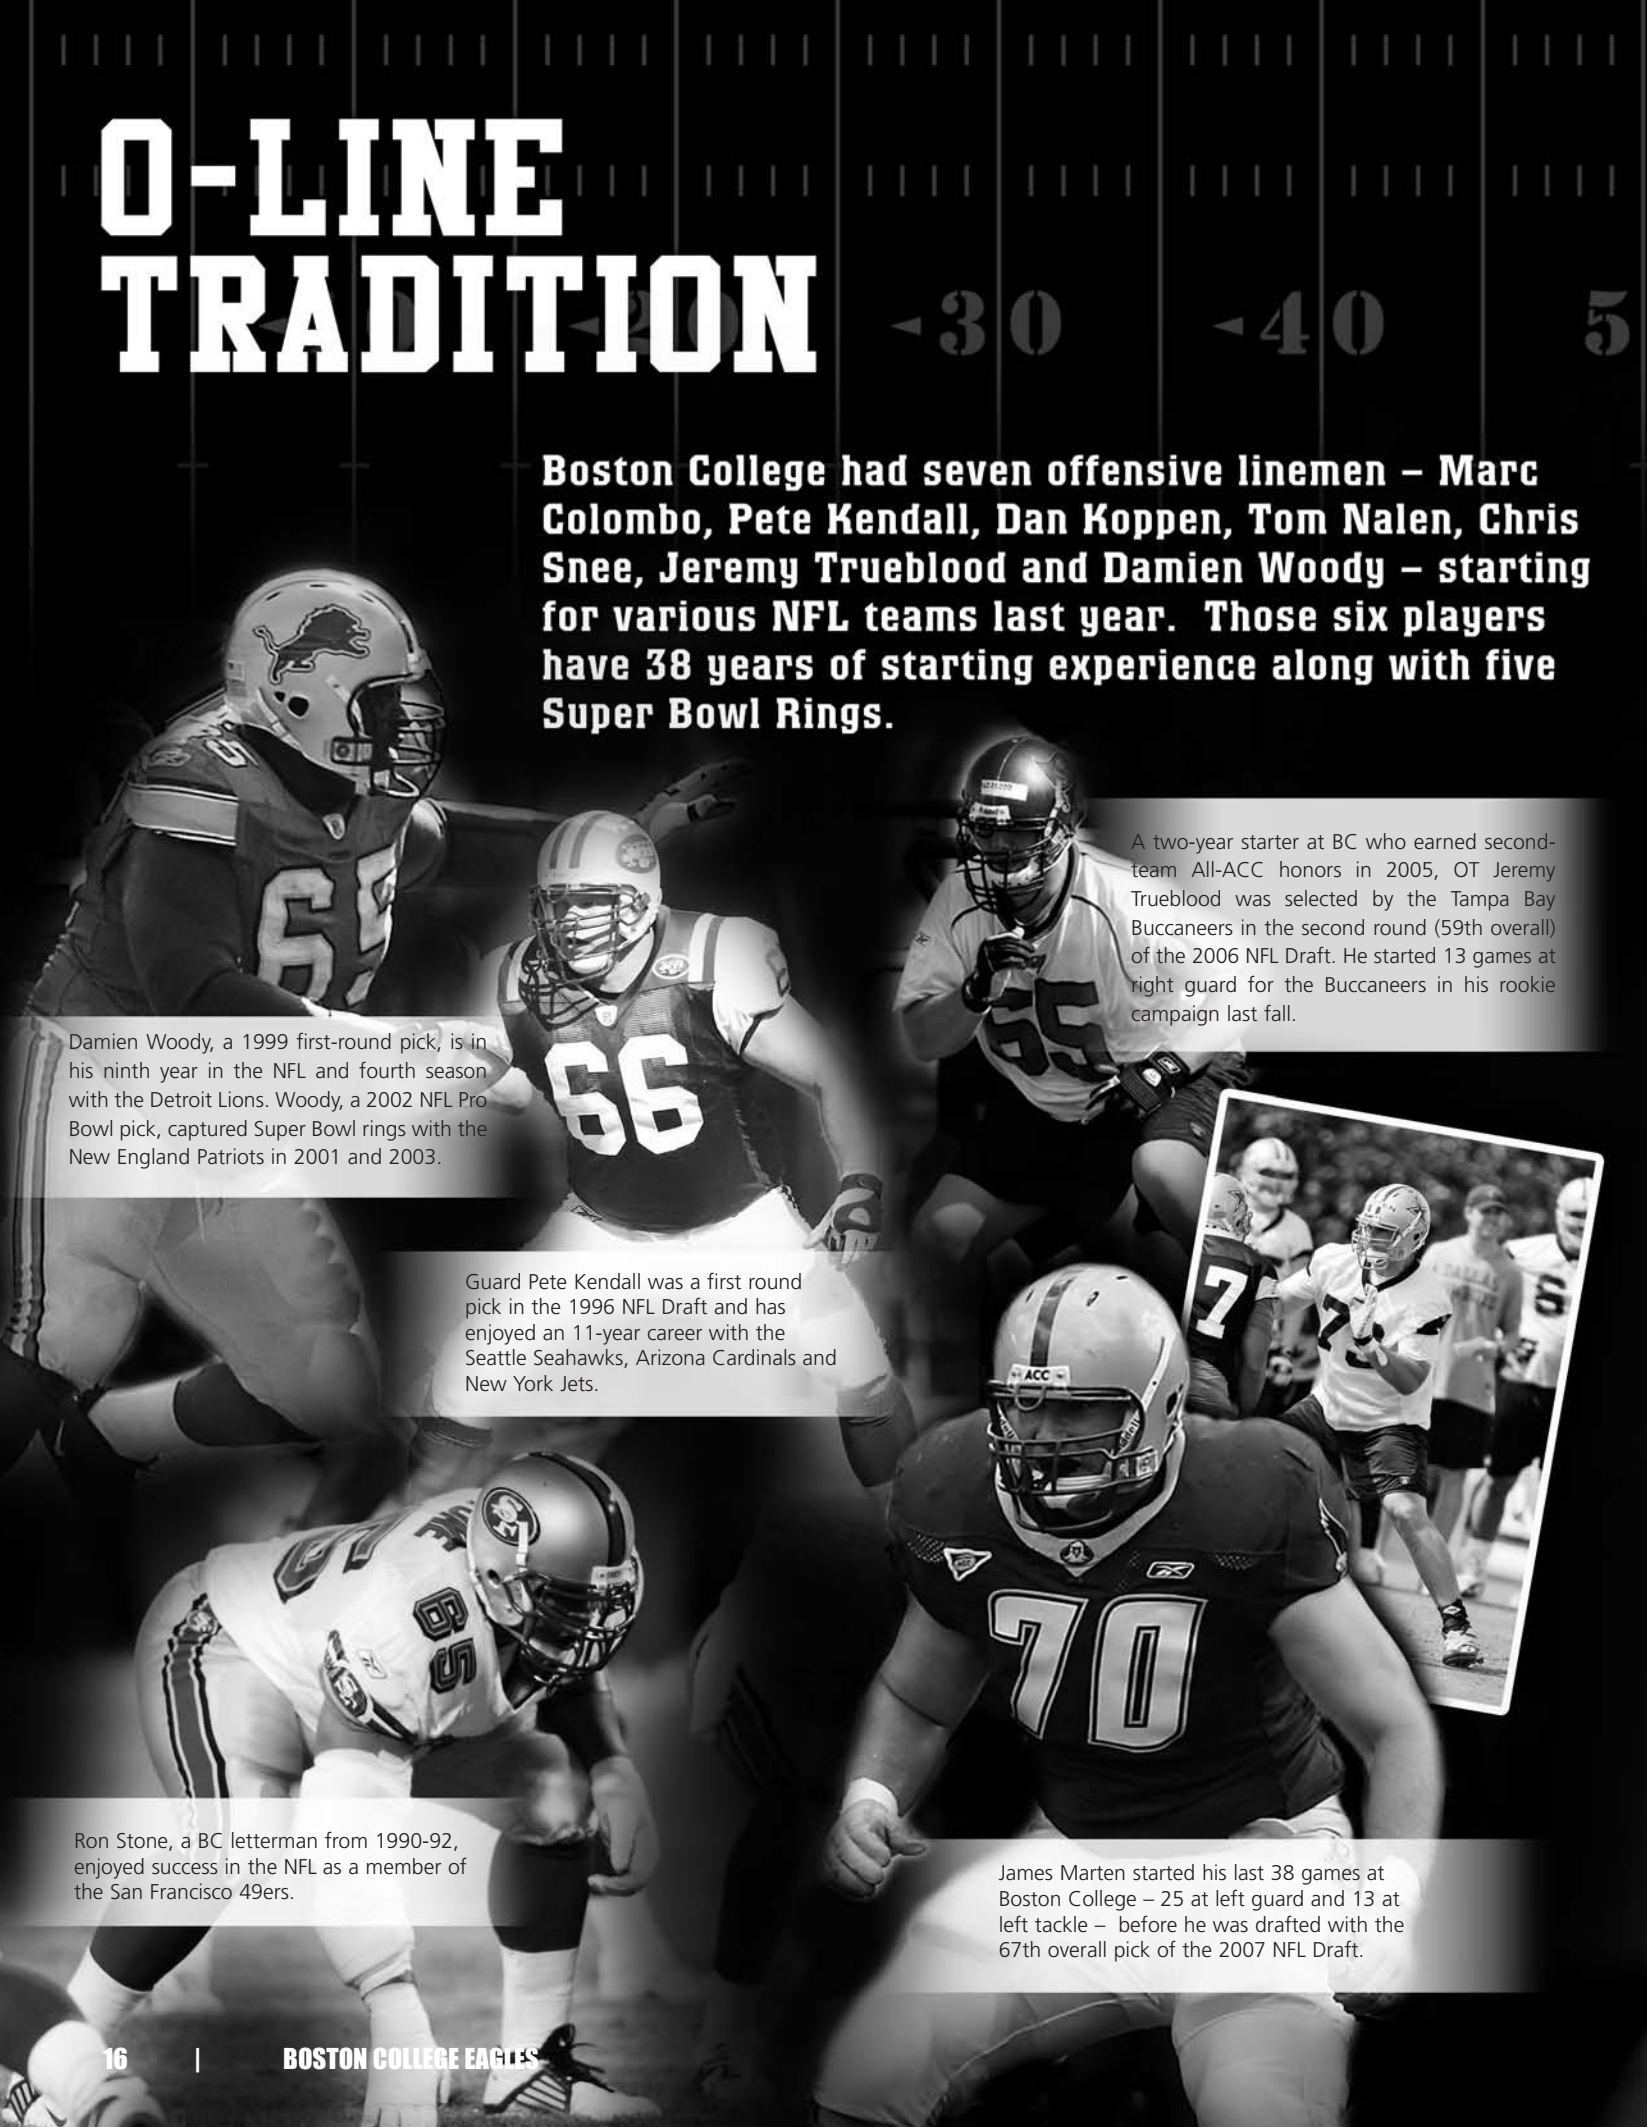

Boston College's spacious Derba Players' Lounge features two 60-inch TVs (equipped with video games), comfortable lounge furniture and a pool table.

Located behind the north end zone of Alumni Stadium, the Alford Football Locker Room features 125 personalized eight-foot tall open lockers and a spacious team meeting area.

BC's athletics teams are able to convene in large groups in the Barber Family Meeting Room.

O-LINE TRADITION

Boston College had seven offensive linemen – Marc Colombo, Pete Kendall, Dan Koppen, Tom Nalen, Chris Snee, Jeremy Trueblood and Damien Woody – starting for various NFL teams last year. Those six players have 38 years of starting experience along with five Super Bowl Rings.

Damien Woody, a 1999 first-round pick, is in his ninth year in the NFL and fourth season with the Detroit Lions. Woody, a 2002 NFL Pro Bowl pick, captured Super Bowl rings with the New England Patriots in 2001 and 2003.

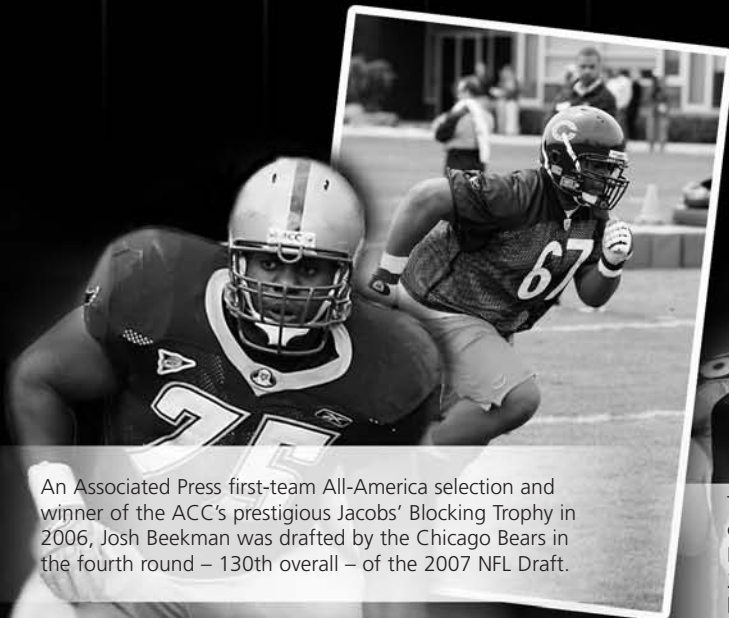

Guard Pete Kendall was a first round pick in the 1996 NFL Draft and has enjoyed an 11-year career with the Seattle Seahawks, Arizona Cardinals and New York Jets.

Ron Stone, a BC letterman from 1990-92, enjoyed success in the NFL as a member of the San Francisco 49ers.

James Marten started his last 38 games at Boston College – 25 at left guard and 13 at left tackle – before he was drafted with the 67th overall pick of the 2007 NFL Draft.

“We [BC] played a pro-style offense, so when guys made the transition to the pro game, it really wasn't a big deal. With some schools, the offense isn't the same as in the NFL. I think that's why offensive linemen from BC tend to make a pretty smooth transition to the pro game. The NFL is about running the football and playing good defense. That's how you win championships. And that's what we do well at BC, no matter who's in the backfield.”

– Damien Woody

An Associated Press first-team All-America selection and winner of the ACC's prestigious Jacobs' Blocking Trophy in 2006, Josh Beekman was drafted by the Chicago Bears in the fourth round – 130th overall – of the 2007 NFL Draft.

Tom Nalen, a 13th-year center whose five Pro Bowl selections (1997-2000, '03) are the most by any offensive lineman in Broncos history.

A finalist for the Rimington Trophy as the nation's premier center in college football in 2001, Dan Koppen has started 56 games over the last four seasons for the New England Patriots, including all six postseason contests during the team's Super Bowl championship seasons in 2003 and 2004.

Marc Colombo was a first-round pick in the 2002 NFL Draft.

NFL CONNECTION

Twelve of the 21 BC players have been selected in the first four rounds of the NFL Draft in the last ten years.

A four-year letterman and two-year starter at Boston College, QB Matt Hasselbeck guided the Seattle Seahawks to the 2005 NFC Championship.

A two-time All-America honoree and Boston College's all-time leader in sacks, DE Mathias Kivanuka was selected by the New York Giants in the first round (26th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft, becoming the 14th player in BC history to be selected in the first round.

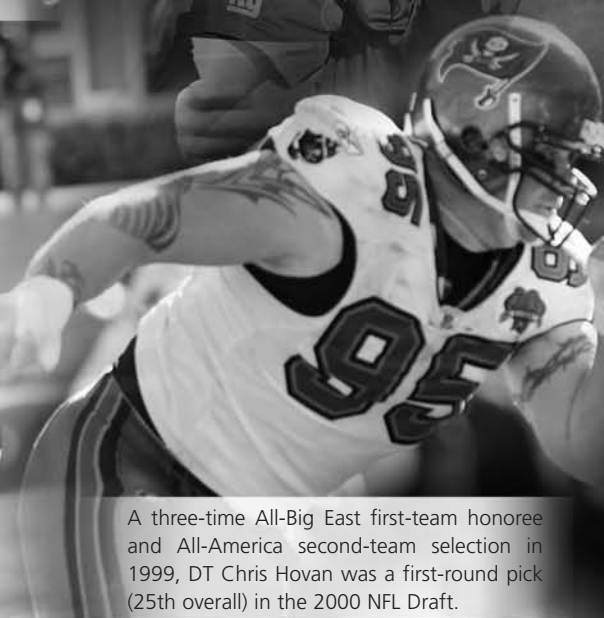

Tim Hasselbeck, who served as backup quarterback for the New York Giants in 2006, captured MVP honors in Boston College's win over Arizona State in the 2001 Aloha Bowl.

Offensive lineman Josh Beekman was a fourth-round selection of the Chicago Bears in the 2007 NFL Draft.

A three-time All-Big East first-team honoree and All-America second-team selection in 1999, DT Chris Hovan was a first-round pick (25th overall) in the 2000 NFL Draft.

Larry Anam signed a free-agent contract with the New England Patriots in 2007.

Will Blackmon established NCAA career records in kickoff returns (114) and kickoff return yards (2,803) during his four-year career at Boston College. He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the fifth round (115th overall) of the 2006 NFL Draft.

DT Tim Bulman signed a free agent contract with the Arizona Cardinals in 2005.

QB Brian St. Pierre spent the 2006 season with the Pittsburgh Steelers.

LB Vinny Ciurciu signed a free-agent contract with Carolina in 2003 and has played each of the last four seasons with Panthers.

DT Antonio Garay was selected by the Cleveland Browns in the sixth round of the 2003 NFL Draft.

BOSTON'S COLLEGE

CITY OF BOSTON

BC is located on the doorstep of one of America's great cities, a center of culture and education for three centuries. With its unmatched history and present-day status as the cultural, educational and commercial center of New England, Boston has garnered a well-deserved reputation as one of the truly great cities in America and, indeed, in the world.

Boston, the capital of Massachusetts and largest city in the six-state region, is perhaps best known for its plethora of top-notch colleges and universities. It also famous for a wide array of professional and amateur sports options and an appealing proximity to some of the Northeast's finest vacationing spots.

EDUCATION

With hundreds of colleges and universities in Massachusetts, including some 50-plus in greater Boston, the area sports the world's most concentrated collection of such institutions. Many of the country's top universities, including Boston College, are located in New England.

HISTORY

Bostonians led the charge for freedom in the Revolutionary War, as the so-called "Minutemen" — bolstered by such eminent patriots as Paul Revere, Samuel Adams and John Hancock — fought and died for this country's independence.

REGION

Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket, scenic islands off the coast of Massachusetts, are well-known for their bike trails, historic lighthouses and meandering beaches. The "arm of Southeastern Massachusetts," Cape Cod serves as a relaxing summer haven for thousands of Bostonians, New Englanders and others.

SPORTS

In addition to a wide array of college sports, the Boston area is a hub of professional sports passion. The Boston Red Sox capture the imagination of the region year-round. The New England Patriots have won three Super Bowl championships in the last six years. The NBA's Boston Celtics are widely considered the most successful and storied team in the history of sport, having won an unparalleled 16 world championships. The Boston Bruins were one of the NHL's six original franchises.

The 2004 World Champion Boston Red Sox play at famed Fenway Park.

Beautiful Cape Cod is a one-hour drive from downtown Boston.

THE ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

A TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE

THE TRADITION

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 55th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 105 national championships, including 56 in women's competition and 49 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 139 times in men's competition and 86 times in women's action.

The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the University of Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981 while Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990. Florida State pocketed national titles No. 4 and 5 in 1993 and 1999, respectively.

In addition, Miami has laid claim to five national gridiron titles over the past 22 seasons. Four of the Hurricanes' five national titles (1983, 1987, 1989, 2001) were unanimous with both the sportswriters and coaches polls, while in 1991 Miami (AP) shared the national title with Washington (coaches).

This past season eight ACC players earned first-team All-America recognition, while nine others garnered second or third team honors. The 12 institutions that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 523 first or second team gridiron All-Americans and 72 first team academic All-Americans.

Led by Georgia Tech wide receiver Calvin Johnson, the second overall selection by the Detroit Lions, the ACC had 31 players selected in the 2007 NFL draft, including six first round selections. Over the past two years, the ACC has had more players selected on the first round (18) and overall in the draft (82) than any other conference in the country. A year ago, the ACC set NFL draft records with 51 first round selections and 51 players drafted overall.

Clemson defensive end Gaines Adams was the first defensive player chosen in the draft when he was selected fourth overall by Tampa Bay. The combination of Johnson and Adams being selected second and fourth gives the ACC two of the top four picks for the second straight year.

The 12 current ACC schools have had 2,124 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 210 first round selections.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC over the years has proven itself to be among the elite in Division I-A Bowl Subdivision football. The ACC is the nation's winningest bowl conference as the 12 current league teams are a combined 143-123-5 (.537) in post season play.

Following its 4-4 bowl mark in 2006, the ACC is the only conference to post a .500-or-better record in post-season play in each of the past six seasons. Since 2001, the ACC is 25-16 in postseason play and has the best bowl winning percentage (.609) among all BCS conferences.

In 2002, the ACC set an NCAA record when seven of its nine teams (78%) received bowl bids.

Boston College is tied with Penn State for the best bowl game winning percentage in Division I-A Bowl Subdivision history among teams with 15 or more postseason appearances. The Eagles are 12-6-0 (.667), while the Nittany Lions are 25-12-2 (.667). Georgia Tech, with a 22-13 (.629) bowl game mark, is fifth and Florida State 21-13-2 (.611) seventh.

For the first time in ACC history, league schools surpassed the 4.4 million mark in total attendance in 2006. Over 85 home games, ACC teams drew 4,485,625 fans, breaking the existing record of 3,835,260 set in 2005.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

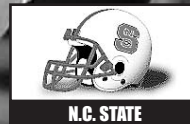

The Dr Pepper ACC Football Championship Game is Saturday, December 1, 2007, in Jacksonville's Alltel Stadium, on ABC.

OT Gosder Cherilus is the latest in a long line of NFL-caliber offensive linemen produced by BC.

First-team All-ACC QB Matt Ryan passed for 2,942 yards and 15 touchdowns in 2006 and enters the season as an All-America candidate.

j.loscalzo.1@bc.edu

BC's Strength and Conditioning staff is charged with putting the power into BC sports.

In early 2007, Jason Loscalzo was named head strength and conditioning coach for the football program. Loscalzo came to BC from Auburn University, where he worked with the Tigers' football team while serving as assistant strength and conditioning coach since 2003. He was head strength and conditioning coach for Olympic Sports at Marshall University from 2001-03 and has also served on staffs at the University of Nevada, Reno, the University of Arkansas and Humboldt State University, his alma mater.

In 2005, the Eagles moved into their brand new strength and conditioning area in the Yawkey Athletics Center. Dedicated exclusively to football, the bright and spacious room contains state-of-the-art equipment for weight lifting, stretching and conditioning activities and overlooks Alumni Stadium.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The sports medicine staff is responsible for the health care needs of student-athletes in one of the largest intercollegiate programs in the United States. This program includes approximately 800 student-athletes in 31 varsity sports. Services include on-site first aid, evaluation and treatment of all athletic injuries, as well as full rehabilitation therapy. Both surgical and non-surgical injuries are rehabilitated within the department, bringing athletes back to full participation.

Student-athletes at Boston College receive the finest medical care available for the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of athletic injuries. Steve Bushee, Assistant Athletic Director/Sports Medicine, serves as the head athletic trainer for the football team, assisted by certified athletic trainer Mike Vigneau. The Sports Medicine staff consists of six full-time athletic trainers, all of whom are certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA) and licensed by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Six resident trainers, also certified and licensed and recent graduates of strenuous athletic training curricula, support the full-time staff.

Overseen by Dr. Tom Nary, Head Team Physician and Director of Health Services, five team physicians serve as the medical corps for the Sports Medicine Department. These include two orthopedic surgeons, an internist, a general practitioner and a sports medicine/emergency medicine physician. Other specialists are on call for consultation on the care and treatment of injuries, while the medical staff confers as needed with numerous medical specialists in the greater Boston area.

WALK-ON TRADITION

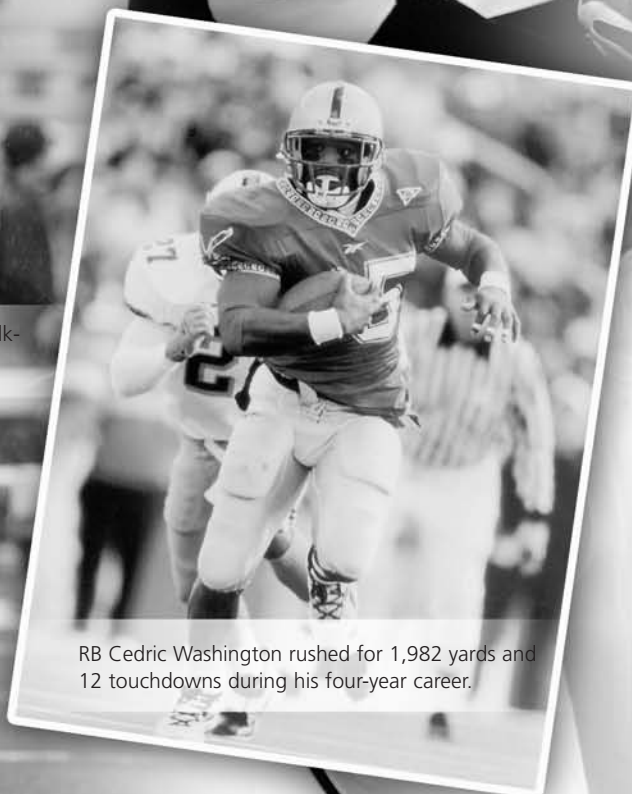

Steve Aponavicius, who had never played in an organized football game before earning the start against Virginia Tech last season and gaining legendary status as BC's "Sid Vicious", was awarded a full scholarship by Head Coach Jeff Jagodzinski.

TE Sean Ryan was drafted in the fifth round — 144th overall — of the 2004 NFL Draft.

WR Mike Makinde is one of three BC walk-ons who earned a scholarship in 2006.

RB Cedric Washington rushed for 1,982 yards and 12 touchdowns during his four-year career.

When place-kicker Steve Aponavicius was awarded a full scholarship by new Head Coach Jeff Jagodzinski, he became the latest addition to an impressive group of former walk-ons who have earned scholarships over the course of the past 10 seasons. Other familiar names include former starting tight end Sean Ryan, running back Cedric Washington (who ended his BC career in 14th place on the all-time Eagle rushing list with 1,982 yards), kicker Mike Sutphin (who set records for field goal percentage in a season), and Mike Siravo, now a member of the BC coaching staff.

HEAD COACH JEFF JAGODZINSKI

JEFF JAGODZINSKI

Came to Boston College from Green Bay Packers (NFL) in 2007

Jeff Jagodzinski returns to Boston College as its 33rd head football coach in 2007, his 15th collegiate season and 23rd overall in coaching.

Named to his position Dec. 19, 2006, the 43-year-old Jagodzinski spent last season as the offensive coordinator for the Green Bay Packers. He had spent the three previous seasons with the Atlanta Falcons after five years with the Packers (1999-2003) as tight ends coach.

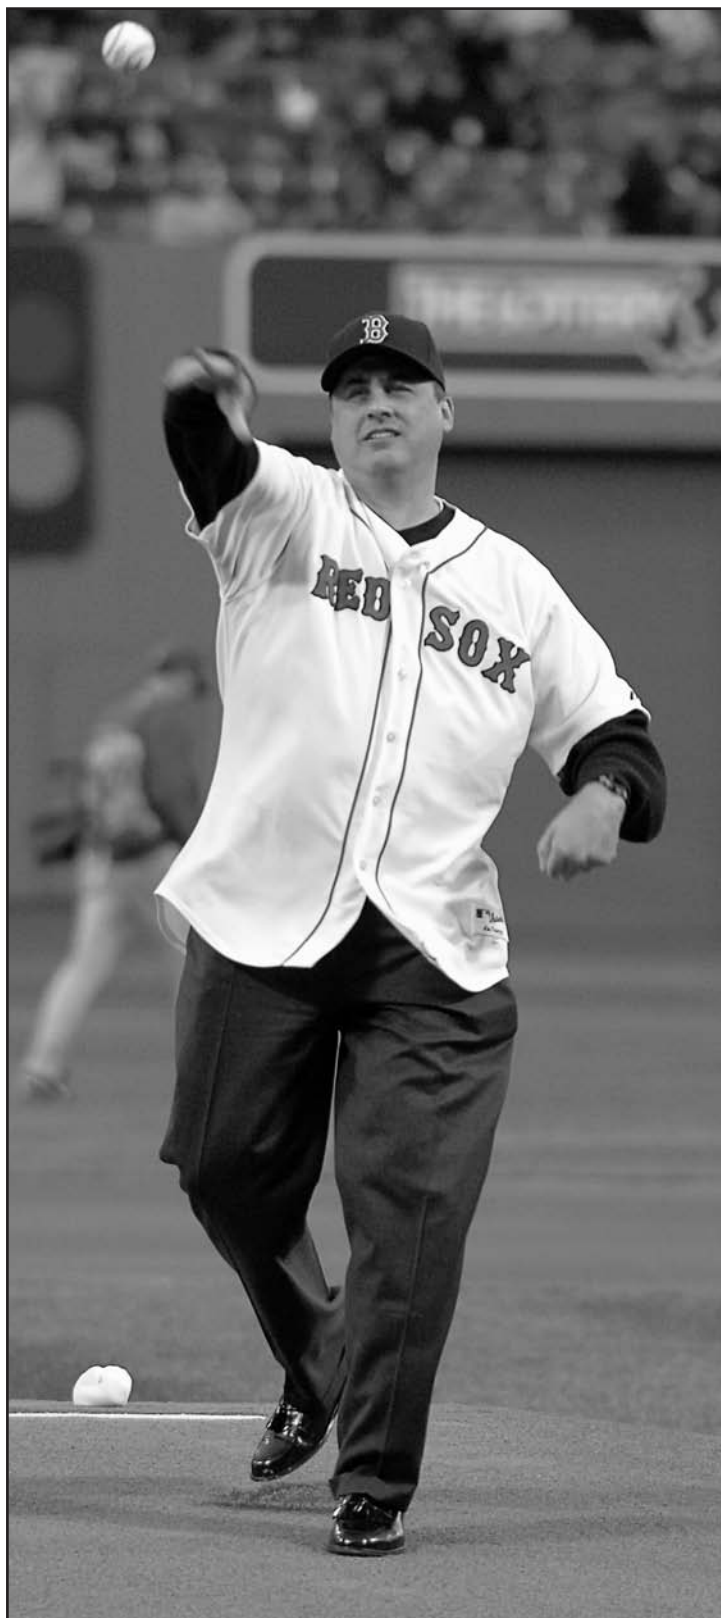

Although Jagodzinski comes to BC from the professional ranks, he spent 14 years as a college coach, most recently two successful seasons (1997-98) as offensive coordinator at Boston College. At BC, his offenses averaged more than 400 yards per game in each of his two seasons. In addition, during both years the Eagles allowed the fewest sacks in the Big East, going from last to first in 1997.

In 1998, Jagodzinski saw one of his pupils gain All-America honors as running back Mike Cloud earned first-team honors and ranked third in the country in rushing; Cloud subsequently was drafted in the second round by Kansas City in 1999. One of his linemen, All-Big East center Damien Woody, was a 1999 first-round draft pick of the New England Patriots, the 17th selection overall. Jagodzinski also coached Seahawks All-Pro quarterback (and former Green Bay backup) Matt Hasselbeck during his 1997 senior season at BC.

Jagodzinski served as Atlanta's offensive line coach in 2005, a promotion he earned after his first year in Atlanta, 2004, as tight ends coach. While in Atlanta, he worked with offensive line consultant Alex Gibbs, the architect of some of the best offensive lines in NFL history, including that of the 1997-98 Super Bowl champion Broncos.

Known as one of the NFL's most successful rushing offenses, the Falcons led the NFL in both rushing yards per game and rushing yards per carry during Jagodzinski's two years in Atlanta. As line coach in 2005, the Falcons' zone-blocking schemes led the way for RB Warrick Dunn's career-high 1,416 rushing yards, a Pro Bowl effort. In part behind timely blocks from the offensive line, Atlanta in 2004 set a franchise record with 2,672 rushing yards, a springboard to the team's berth in the NFC Championship game.

Alge Crumpler, Jagodzinski's primary pupil as tight ends coach in 2004, went to the Pro Bowl that season after catching 48 passes for 774 yards and a career-high six TDs. Crumpler's 16.1-yard per-catch average led all NFL tight ends in '04.

Coach Jagodzinski was invited to throw out the first pitch at a Boston Red Sox game early in the 2007 season.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Jagodzinski spent five years (1999-2003) as the Packers' tight ends coach and was instrumental in launching the career of three-time Pro Bowl tight end Bubba Franks. In 2002, Franks recorded 54 receptions, the first 50-plus catch season by a Packers tight end since Boston College graduate Mark Chmura tallied 54 in 1995. Franks' mark fell just two shy of Paul Coffman's club-record 56 (1979).

Prior to his coaching stint at Boston College, Jagodzinski served on coaching staffs at East Carolina (1989-96), Louisiana State (1987-88), Northern Illinois (1986), and the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater (1985), his alma mater.

Assistant Coaches

JACK BICKNELL Jr.

Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line

Came to Boston College from Texas Tech University in 2007

The newest member of the BC coaching staff, Jack Bicknell Jr. has been named Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line Coach. Bicknell, a three-year letterwinner on the BC offensive line and the starting center during Doug Flutie's Heisman Trophy year in 1984, comes to BC from Texas Tech University, where he was offensive line coach.

Prior to going to Texas Tech, Bicknell spent eight seasons as the head coach at Louisiana Tech (43-49). His teams consistently played some of the toughest teams in America, including Florida State, Penn State, Miami, Tennessee, Nebraska, Texas A&M, Clemson and Auburn. Under his leadership, Tech defeated national powers Alabama, Michigan State and Oklahoma State and 22 of his players were either drafted by or signed free agent contracts with NFL teams.

Bicknell, who was one of the youngest Division I-A head coaches when he started, led the 1999 Bulldogs to an 8-3 record, the school's first AP Top 25 ranking and a 29-28 upset win over eventual SEC champion Alabama. In 2001, Louisiana Tech won the Western Athletic Conference championship during its first year of membership, earning Bicknell conference Coach of the Year honors. Louisiana Tech went on to play Clemson in the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl, the program's first postseason appearance since 1990.

Bicknell began his coaching career at Boston College in 1985 as a graduate assistant. In 1987, he went to the University of New Hampshire as the defensive line coach and took over the offensive line in 1993. During his time at UNH, the Wildcats won the Yankee Conference in 1991 and 1994 and were the New England Division champions in 1996.

Bicknell's father, Jack, recently served as the head coach of the Barcelona Dragons of NFL Europe and was the head coach at BC from 1981-90, finishing with a record of 59-55-1. He led the Eagles to four of their most successful seasons in history, including a 10-2 campaign in 1984 that culminated with the "Miracle in Miami" win, Flutie's Heisman Trophy and a 45-28 win over Houston in the Cotton Bowl.

Bicknell received both his bachelor's (1985) and master's (1987) degrees from BC. In addition to starting in the Cotton Bowl, he also played in the 1982 Tangerine Bowl and was the starting center when Flutie threw the Hail Mary pass to defeat Miami in 1984. As a senior at BC, he received the Scanlon Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a BC football player, the Scarminach Award for athletic and academic excellence and the Dean's Award in the school of education. Bicknell and his wife Helen have three children, John, Katelyn and Alyse.

FRANK SPAZIANI

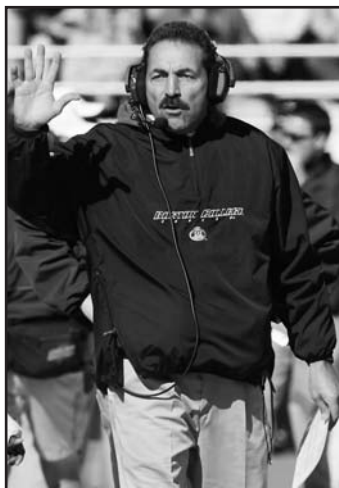

Defensive Coordinator

Came to Boston College from Calgary Stampeders (CFL) in 1997

Frank Spaziani will be entering his 11th year on the BC coaching staff, his ninth as Defensive Coordinator. Spaziani is one of two coaches (along with linebackers coach Bill McGovern) who remained on staff after Jeff Jagodzinski was named head coach.

Spaziani's name will go down in the BC record books as the only coach with a perfect record. He was credited with BC's 25-24 win over Navy in the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl as he served as Interim Head Coach following the departure of Tom O'Brien.

In 2006, Boston College led the ACC with five defensive touchdowns. The Eagles were third in the ACC in scoring defense and Jolonn Dunbar was named National Defensive Player of the Week when he scored two of BC's three defensive touchdowns vs. Maryland. In 2005, BC led the ACC in rushing defense (90.8 ypg.) and red zone defense (25-39, 64.1) and was third in scoring defense (15.9 ypg.). The 2004 Eagles were ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense, top 20 in rushing defense and top 25 in pass efficiency defense. In 2003 BC was ranked second in the Big East in total defense and rushing defense. During the 2002 season, the Eagle defense was ranked 13th nationally in passing defense, 25th in pass efficiency defense, 23rd in scoring defense and 37th in total defense.

Spaziani is a 1969 graduate of Penn State, where he was a star defensive end on the Nittany Lions teams that tied Florida State in the 1967 Gator Bowl and defeated Kansas in the 1969 Orange Bowl.

Frank and his wife, the former Laura Heikel, are the parents of three children, Joseph and twins Avery and Andrew.

STEVE LOGAN

Offensive Coordinator

*Came to Boston College from
Rhein Fire (NFL Europe) in 2007*

Steve Logan joins the BC staff after two seasons as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach with the Berlin Thunder of NFL Europe and one season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach with the Rhein Fire. Logan helped Dave Ragone (2004) and Rohan Davey (2005) earn Offensive Player of the Year and All-NFL Europe honors. Since August 2006, he has hosted a sports talk-radio show in Raleigh, N.C.

Logan will be reunited at Boston College with Head Coach Jeff Jagodzinski; the two worked together under East Carolina University coach Bill Lewis from 1989-92. When Logan succeeded Lewis, Jagodzinski remained on staff for four years before accepting the offensive coordinator position at Boston College.

Prior to his stint in NFL Europe, Logan served as the head coach of East Carolina from 1992-2002. He became the school's all-time winningest coach (69-58), and led the Pirates to five bowl games, including the 1994 St. Jude Liberty Bowl, the 1995 St. Jude Liberty Bowl, the 1999 Mobile Alabama Bowl, the 2000 Galleryfurniture.com Bowl, and the 2001 GMAC Bowl. Logan led the 1995 team to a 9-3 record and a No. 23 ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

Logan is widely regarded as an offensive architect, and began implementing his system as co-offensive coordinator for ECU in 1990 and 1991. The 1991 team finished 11-1, reached a top-10 national ranking and defeated NC State in the Peach Bowl.

Logan began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Union High School in Tulsa, Okla. in 1974. In 1980, he became the tight ends coach at Oklahoma State under head coach Jimmy Johnson. He moved to Hutchinson Junior College for two years before taking the reigns as offensive coordinator at Tulsa under John Cooper. Logan headed for Colorado in 1985, coaching the Buffalo running backs for two years before coaching the quarterbacks at Mississippi State until 1989.

Logan, a 1975 graduate of Tulsa, developed much of his coaching philosophy through the influence of several head coaches. He worked with former Ohio State coach John Cooper at Tulsa, former Miami Dolphins coach Jimmy Johnson at Oklahoma State, former Colorado coach Bill McCartney, and with Bill Lewis at East Carolina.

Logan and his wife, Laura, are the parents of two sons, Vincent and Nathanael.

JEFF COMISSIONG

Defensive Line Coach

Came to Boston College from Harvard University in 2007

2006 Season

Defensive Line Coach Jeff Comissiong comes to Boston College from nearby Harvard University, where he coached in 2006. Before moving to Harvard before last season, Comissiong worked as an assistant at the University of Maine for eight seasons.

Comissiong began his coaching career at Maine in 1996, serving as a defensive line assistant for two seasons. During this stint, Comissiong worked with Boston College Running Backs Coach Ben Sirmans, who was on the Maine staff from 1996 to 1999. From Maine, Comissiong moved on to Bates College, where he coached the defensive line in 1998 and 1999.

Comissiong returned to Maine in 2000, coaching the running backs and then the defensive line. In 2003, Comissiong also was given the duties of recruiting coordinator for the Maine program.

Upon his arrival at Harvard last season, Comissiong assumed more recruiting duties, overseeing recruitment in New York, New England, and Canada, as well as serving as the program's professional liaison.

Last season, with Comissiong working with the defensive line, Harvard boasted the stingiest run defense in the Ivy League. The 66.5 YPG allowed was far and away the most impressive mark in the league, as was the 2.0 YPC allowed by the unit.

A four-year letterwinner in football, Comissiong graduated from Maine in 1997. Jeff, and his wife Alison, have two daughters, Jacey and Mya.

RYAN DAY

Wide Receivers

Came to Boston College from Temple University in 2007

Ryan Day begins his first year as BC's Wide Receivers Coach. Day came to BC from Temple University, where he served as wide receivers coach last season.

Day spent the 2005 season as offensive graduate assistant at the University of Florida for Urban Meyer. The Gators posted a 9-3 record with Day assisting the offense. Gator wide receiver Chad Jackson was a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, ranking sixth nationally in receptions per game (7.36), while Day was assisting with the offense.

Day arrived in Gainesville after spending the 2003 and 2004 seasons as the offensive graduate assistant at BC. With the Eagles, Day worked with the wide receivers and helped the team to a 9-3 overall record in 2004 and a No. 21 ranking in the final AP and ESPN/USA Today poll after defeating North Carolina, 37-24, in the Continental Tire Bowl. The ranking was the highest for the school since 1993 and senior wide receiver Grant Adams earned All-Big East accolades. In 2003, the Eagles posted an 8-5 overall record and defeated Colorado State, 35-21, in the San Francisco Bowl.

Day was the tight ends coach at his alma mater, the University of New Hampshire, in 2002. A three-year starter at quarterback and team captain as a senior in 2001, Day held four UNH passing records upon graduation, including best passing percentage in a career (59.9, 1997-2001) and touchdown passes in a career (53). His 653 completions rank seventh-best in Atlantic 10 conference history.

Born March 12, 1979, Day is a native of Manchester, NH and is married to Christina. He earned his undergraduate degree in business administration in 2002 before receiving a master's of science in administrative studies at BC in 2004. He was the New Hampshire Gatorade Player of the Year at Manchester Central High School in 1996.

BILL McGOVERN

Linebackers

Came to Boston College from University of Pittsburgh in 2000

Bill McGovern is set to enter his eighth season as Linebackers Coach (and 11th overall) at Boston College. McGovern is one of two coaches (along with defensive coordinator Frank Spaziani) who remained on staff following the hiring of Jeff Jagodzinski as head coach.

A native of Oradell, NJ, McGovern was a four-year starter at defensive back for Holy Cross before his graduation in 1985. He set a single-season record for interceptions (11) for I-AA and was a consensus first-team All-America (I-AA) selection in 1985. He is a member of the Holy Cross Hall of Fame and has been named to the Bergen County (N.J.) All-Century Team.

McGovern played a key role in recruiting New Jersey linebackers Frank Chamberlin and Gerald Hayes, both of whom went on to play in the NFL.

McGovern has coached in nine collegiate bowl games, including the 2006 Meineke Car Care Bowl, the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl, the 2004 Continental Tire Bowl, the 2003 Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl, the 2002 Motor City Bowl, the 2001 Music City Bowl, the 2000 Aloha Bowl, the 1994 Aloha Bowl (in his first stint at BC) and the 1997 Liberty Bowl with Pittsburgh.

McGovern lives in Ashland with his wife, Colleen, and daughters Amanda, Delaine and MacKenzie.

MIKE SIRAVO

Recruiting Coordinator, Defensive Backs

Came to Boston College from Temple University in 2007

Mike Siravo comes to Boston College from Temple University, where he served as recruiting coordinator and linebackers coach last season. At Temple, he was one of four coaches on that staff (Al Golden, Ryan Day, Bob Bicknell) with Boston College ties and heads to BC with seven years of collegiate coaching experience.

Prior to his experience at Temple, Siravo spent the three seasons as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Columbia University. Siravo developed a strong national recruiting system under head coach Bob Shoop. He also helped linebacker Chuck Britton earn All-Ivy honors in 2004.

A former linebacker at Boston College, Siravo joined the Eagles as a walk-on in 1995 and later earned a scholarship. A two-year letterwinner, he played under head coaches Dan Henning and Tom O'Brien. Siravo also excelled off the field, earning Big East All-Academic team honors as a senior.

Siravo remained in Chestnut Hill upon graduation and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for recruiting in 1998. The Eagles' February 1999 recruiting class was rated the best in school history, ranking 15th nationally according to expert Tom Lemming and featuring future NFL players William Green, Augie Hoffmann, Keith Leavitt and Derrick Knight. Siravo spent the 1999 and 2000 campaigns as Boston College's defensive graduate assistant, working with the secondary and linebackers. The Eagles made two postseason bowl appearances, the 1999 Insight.com Bowl and the 2000 Aloha Bowl.

BEN SIRMANS

Running Backs

Came to Boston College from Michigan State University in 2007

Running Backs Coach Ben Sirmans joins the staff at Boston College after two years as an assistant at Michigan State. Sirmans brings 10 years experience as a coach to the program.

Sirmans began his college coaching career in 1996 at his alma mater, the University of Maine. From 1996 through 1999, Sirmans worked as running backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Maine. In 1996 and 1997, Sirmans worked with Boston College Defensive Line Coach Jeff Comissiong, who was then an assistant at Maine.

In 2000, Sirmans moved on to Kent State. He coached the running backs for five years, first under current New England Patriots Defensive Coordinator Dean Pees (2000-03), and then under Doug Martin (2004). With Sirmans' assistance, the Kent State offense was notably productive. In 2001 and 2002, the Golden Eagles rolled up 215 yards per game along the ground, finishing 13th and 15th nationally in rushing production those two seasons. In 2004, Kent State scored 30.5 points per game, the second-highest mark in school history.

The Sirmanses — Tia and Ben

In 2005, Sirmans joined the staff at Michigan State as running backs coach. That season, the Spartans finished 20th in the nation, rushing for 201.8 yards per game. In 2006, Sirmans coached special teams as well as the running backs.

In his playing days, Sirmans was a running back at Maine under current Iowa Head Coach Kirk Ferentz. His senior year, Sirmans ran for 1,214 yards, earning All-Conference and All-New England honors. He graduated from Maine in 1993 with a degree in physical education, health, and recreation.

A native of East Orange, NJ, Sirmans is married to the former Tia Thompson.

Assistant Coaches

DON YANOWSKY

Tight Ends, Special Teams

Came to Boston College from East Carolina in 2007

Don Yanowsky comes to Boston College after serving as tight ends and special teams coach at East Carolina for one season. Before that, he spent three seasons as a member of the Duke coaching staff (2003-05), the last two as offensive line coach. He spent the 2003 season coaching Duke's outside linebackers and special teams.

Yanowsky is reunited with offensive coordinator Steve Logan, who hired Yanowsky as defensive line coach at East Carolina in 2001. With more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience, Yanowsky began his career as a student assistant coach at Toledo in 1981. He then spent three years at Utah as an offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator. In 1985, Yanowsky became the offensive coordinator at Bountiful (Utah) High School before taking the head coaching reigns at Viewmont (Utah) High School in 1987. Two years later, he returned to the collegiate ranks as the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Memphis.

After six seasons with the Tigers, he coached one campaign at Minnesota as the defensive line coach before spending four seasons at Arkansas State, the last three as the outside linebackers and special teams coach. Yanowsky was also the recruiting coordinator for the Indians before being hired by Steve Logan at East Carolina in 2001.

In his first year at ECU, Yanowsky helped the Pirates earn a berth in the GMAC Bowl, while coaching the defensive line and on special teams. In 2003, he took a job in the Atlantic Coast Conference at Duke, where he provided an immediate impact on special teams. The Blue Devils improved from a No. 113 national rank to No. 21 in kickoff returns and placed third in the ACC in kickoff coverage. From 2004-2005, he coached the offensive line at Duke before beginning his second stint at East Carolina.

A 1982 graduate of Toledo with a degree in education, he was a two-year starter at offensive guard. A native of Chicago, Ill., Yanowsky is married to the former Janet Free and the couple has two sons, Donnie and Jacob.

Assistant Coaches

BARRY GALLUP

Assistant A.D., Football Operations

Came to Boston College from Northeastern University in 2000

Former Northeastern University football coach and BC grad ('69) Barry Gallup was named Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations in May 2000. Gallup handles a number of administrative duties for head coach Tom O'Brien and his staff.

Gallup has dedicated a large part of his life to football in Boston. In early 2007, Gallup received the John Baronian Award for Lifetime Contribution to Football from the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston at its annual awards ceremony.

After starring on the football field at Swampscott High for legendary coach Stan Bondevitch, earning All-America honors as a senior, he entered BC in 1965 and would become the greatest receiver in the school's history before graduating in 1969. He set school marks for receptions with 87 and receiving yards, 1,325 (Mel Briggs eclipsed both of the records in 1973). He had 735 yards and established a season record for catches (46) as a senior (a mark eventually broken by Gallup protégé Brian Brennan in 1983). He also played two years of college basketball for legendary former Boston Celtic Bob Cousy.

Upon college graduation, Gallup turned down an offer to play with the Boston Patriots and began his career in teaching and coaching, working in the Swampscott school district. In 1970, he embarked upon a 20-year coaching career with the Eagles when he became a part-time assistant coach at BC. He became a full-time assistant in 1973, coaching the team's defensive line. His role changed to receivers and tight ends coach and head recruiting coordinator when Jack Bicknell arrived as head coach in 1981.

As an assistant first to Joe Yukica, then to Ed Chlebek and finally to Bicknell, Gallup established himself as a top recruiter and football strategist. Gallup played a key role in attracting some of the nation's most talented players to BC, including Heisman Trophy winner and current New England Patriot Doug Flutie, Joe Nash, Fred Smerlas and Peter Cronan. He coached several future professional players while directing the receiving corps, including Brian Brennan (Cleveland Browns), Mark Chmura (Green Bay Packers), Kelvin Martin (Dallas Cowboys), Pete Mitchell (New York Giants), Tom Waddle (Chicago Bears) and the brothers Flutie, Doug and Darren, who both went on to play in the Canadian Football League. As BC's primary recruiter, he was one of the key builders of bowl-bound BC teams in 1982 (Tangerine Bowl), '83 (Liberty), '85 (Cotton) and '86 (Hall of Fame). He was inducted into BC's Varsity Club Hall of Fame in 1983.

Gallup took over the Northeastern football program in 1991. After going 4-7 his first year, Gallup built the program into a winner that finished with a 6-5 mark in 1996 and an 8-3 record in 1997. He was named New England Coach of the Year in 1997. His 1998 senior class left as the most successful in school history. He left NU with an overall coaching record of 38-60-1. Before returning strictly to coaching in 1998, Gallup had an eventful four-year tenure as NU's athletics director in which the department successfully earned NCAA certification, initiated a comprehensive strategic plan to achieve gender equity, and added several prominent coaches, including highly respected hockey coach Bruce Crowder and men's basketball coach Dave Leitao.

Gallup resides in Wellesley with wife, Victoria, and they are the parents of Lisa Ann, a junior in the school of nursing at BC, Barry Charles Jr., a red-shirt freshman football player at Notre Dame, and the late Darren Douglas.

Football Support Staff

KELLY WHEELER
Assistant Director of Football Operations

Kelly Wheeler was recently promoted to the position of Assistant Director of Football Operations after serving as a staff assistant in the football office for two years.

Wheeler is a William and Mary graduate and earned her Master's degree from the University of Massachusetts in 2002. Prior to coming to BC, Wheeler served as Coordinator of Championships and Director of Championships for the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) from 2003-05. Previously, she served internships at BC (2002-03), the Pawtucket Red Sox (2001) and the Cape Cod Baseball League (2000).

DOUG GOODWIN
Video Graduate Assistant

Doug Goodwin, a four-year starter on the defensive line for the Eagles from 2000-03, enters his second season as a graduate assistant in the football program's video department.

Goodwin earned All-Big East second-team honors and played in four bowl games, all BC victories. He gained pro football experience with several teams, including the Baltimore Ravens, Frankfurt Galaxy, Arizona Rattlers, Winnipeg Blue Bombers and the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Pioneers. Goodwin earned his B.S. in Psychology from BC in 2004. He is a native of Freeport, N.Y.

PATRICK MADDEN
Defensive Graduate Assistant

Patrick Madden joins the BC staff as defensive graduate assistant after six seasons on the staff at Columbia University. Madden spent the 2000-2005 seasons at Columbia, most recently as defensive secondary coach and special teams coordinator.

Madden began his coaching career in 1999 at his alma mater, Wesleyan University. Madden spent that season coaching the secondary.

Madden earned a B.A. in American Studies from Wesleyan in 1999. A native of Weymouth, Mass., Madden competed in both football and track and field at Wesleyan.

CHRIS MOSLEY
Offensive Graduate Assistant

Offensive Graduate Assistant Chris Mosley comes to Boston College from Villanova University, where he served as cornerbacks coach in 2006.

Before his stint at Villanova, Mosley was an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Akron in 2005. Before that, Mosley coached at his alma mater, Washington and Jefferson College from 2004-05. Before his tenure at Washington and Jefferson, Mosley worked in the Cincinnati Reds organization as a strength and conditioning coach from 2003-04. Mosley also spent three years (2001-03) as a strength and conditioning assistant at the University of Notre Dame.

Mosley played running back for Southeast Missouri State (1997-98) and Washington and Jefferson College (1999-2000). He graduated from Washington and Jefferson in 2001 with a B.A. in Sociology. Mosley currently resides in Brighton, Mass.

RYAN MATTISON
Recruiting Graduate Assistant

Ryan Mattison comes to the Boston College staff as the graduate assistant for recruiting. Mattison spent the last two seasons as the assistant secondary coach at Holy Cross.

Before Holy Cross, Mattison was secondary coach at Assumption College in 2004.

Mattison played for five seasons as a defensive back for Boston College. Mattison walked on to the team in 1999, eventually earned a scholarship, and twice lettered under Head Coach Tom O'Brien. Mattison was part of five bowl teams, and four bowl-winning teams.

Mattison graduated from BC with a B.S. in Marketing in 2003, and an M.S. in Administrative Studies in 2006. A native of Sterling, Mass., Mattison currently resides in Brighton, Mass.

2006 IN REVIEW

BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

August 31, 2006

Game One: Boston College 31, Central Michigan 24

Kelly/Shorts Stadium • Mount Pleasant, MI • Attendance: 25,481 • Kickoff Time: 6:06 p.m. EDT

Opening the season on the road for the third consecutive year, the Boston College Eagles held on for a 31-24 victory over Central Michigan in a nationally televised (ESPN2) game under the lights in Mount Pleasant, Mich.

Junior quarterback Matt Ryan had a career-best night, completing 32-of-48 passes for 323 yards and three touchdowns. The Eagles struck early, forcing the Chippewas to a three-and-out on the opening drive. Taking over at their own 39-yard line, the Eagles drove 34 yards in seven plays to set up a 44-yard Ryan Ohliger field goal, the second longest of his career.

Late in the first quarter, however, Ohliger missed a 42-yarder when it hit the left upright. Central Michigan took over and drove to the BC two-yard-line, but the Eagle defense held to force a 21-yard Rick Albreski field goal that evened the score at three.

Early in the second quarter, Ryan mounted the first touchdown drive of the season, highlighted by a 27-yard completion to Tony Gonzalez that moved the Eagles to the Central Michigan 1-yard-line. Linebacker (and goal-line fullback) Brian Toal marched onto the field, and on second-and-goal, the junior crossed the goal line for his first touchdown of the 2006 season.

The Chippewas took over on their own 25-yard line and mystified onlookers by going for it on fourth-and-eight on their own 27-yard-line. When Dan LeFevour's pass fell incomplete, the Eagles took over and made the Chippewas pay. On second-and-four from the CMU eight, Ryan completed a pass to L.V. Whitworth, who fumbled the ball. Senior offensive guard Josh Beekman was able to deflect the loose ball into the end zone, where tight end Ryan Purvis recovered it for a touchdown that put the Eagles ahead 17-3. The Eagles took the 14-point lead into the locker room at halftime.

Midway through the third quarter, Central Michigan mounted a drive that would make things interesting, when BC's DeJuan Tribble fumbled a punt and CMU recovered at the BC 26. LeFevour completed a 13-yard touchdown pass to Ontario Sneed to pull the Chippewas within seven, 17-10.

The fourth quarter was filled with scoring by both teams. Early in the quarter, the Eagles mounted a nine-play, 76-yard drive that culminated with a Matt Ryan 24-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Challenger. The Eagle defense then held CMU to three-and-out. Taking over at their own 39-yard-line, the Eagles mounted a 61-yard, six-play drive sealed once again with a Matt Ryan touchdown pass, this one a 19-yarder to Gonzalez that gave BC a seemingly insurmountable 31-10 lead.

But not so fast. Central Michigan took over at its own 13-yard-line with 10:11 remaining in the game and produced an impressive 87-yard touchdown drive that cut BC's lead to 31-17. After forcing the Eagles to punt on their next possession, LeFevour led the Chippewas on another impressive drive, highlighted by a 47-yard completion to Obed Cetoute. LeFevour took it in from the two to cut BC's lead to 31-24.

Once again, the Chippewas forced BC to punt, and after a penalty, took over on the BC 44-yard-line. This time Toal put on his defensive hat and snuffed out what could have been the game-tying drive by intercepting a LeFevour pass at the BC 16. The Eagles were then able to run out the clock and return to Chestnut Hill with the 31-24 win.

September 9, 2006

Game Two: Boston College 34, Clemson 33 (2OT)

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, MA • Attendance: 44,500 • Kickoff Time: 3:36 p.m. EDT

Junior linebacker Jolonn Dunbar blocked Clemson place-kicker Jad Dean's extra-point attempt in double overtime and running back L.V. Whitworth capped a five-play, 25-yard drive with a six-yard touchdown plunge on the ensuing Boston College possession. Ryan Ohliger tacked on the game-winning extra point to lead the Eagles to a 34-33 double-overtime victory over 18th-ranked Clemson in front of 44,500 fans in Alumni Stadium.

Facing third-and-five in the second overtime, junior quarterback Matt Ryan connected with Kevin Challenger (six receptions, 73 yards and one touchdown) on third-and-five from the 20-yard line for an eight-yard gain. Whitworth rushed for six yards, and following a Clemson timeout, crashed into the end zone on the ensuing play to set up Ohliger's PAT that sealed the victory.

The win marked the first over a ranked opponent in Alumni Stadium for head coach Tom O'Brien, who also earned his 68th victory, which tied him with Joe Yukica (1968-77) for the most wins in the BC football history book.

Ryan, his starting status in question after injuring his ankle at Central Michigan the week before, got the nod and completed 22-of-38 passes for 212 yards and one touchdown.

Tied at 24 at the conclusion of regulation, BC got the ball first in the opening overtime frame and Ohliger kicked a 35-yard field goal to put the host Eagles up three. Clemson quarterback Will Proctor then completed his first pass to Chansi Stuckey for 22 yards for a first down on the BC 3-yard line. Boston College defensive end Nick Larkin (game-high 10.5 tackles) and free safety Jamie Silva (game-high 10.5 tackles) combined to push the Clemson offense back four yards before Larkin sacked Proctor for a loss of nine yards as the Eagles' defense limited the Tigers to a field goal to tie the score at 27.

The Clemson offense got the ball first in the second overtime period and overcame a 15-yard pass interference call, which placed the ball back on the 41-yard line, to score a touchdown five plays later. But, the routine PAT proved the difference as Dunbar was able to penetrate the left side and elevate to block Dean's kick and the Eagles got the ball back, trailing by six points instead of seven.

Ryan also registered a rushing touchdown, scoring on the end of a nine-play, 58-yard drive in the fourth quarter that tied the score at 24 with 4:59 remaining in the game.

The game, however, was perhaps decided because of the play of freshman kickoff return specialist Jeff Smith, who returned five kickoffs for 213 yards — one shy of the school single-game record (214 — Dave Bennett, 1968 vs. Army) — including a 96-yard touchdown return to open the third quarter of play. On BC's final scoring drive of regulation, Smith returned the Clemson kickoff 29 yards to the BC 42-yard line.

Ryan took over with 8:20 left and completed 4-of-5 passes for 50 yards — including two to Challenger. Challenger's second reception of 14 yards was initially ruled an interception by Clemson's Michael Hamlin, but replays showed Hamlin ripped the ball out of Challenger's hands after Challenger had made the 18-yard reception. Just a few plays later, Ryan broke into the end zone to tie the score at 24.

Game Three: Boston College 30, Brigham Young 23 (2OT)

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, MA • Attendance: 40,233 • Kickoff Time: 12:06 p.m. ET

Junior quarterback Matt Ryan completed a 25-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Tony Gonzalez on the first play of the second overtime and safety Jamie Silva hauled in a deflected John Beck pass for the game-winning interception to lead No. 23 Boston College to a 30-23 double-overtime non-conference victory over Brigham Young University before 40,233 fans in Alumni Stadium.

Ryan completed 29-of-48 passing attempts for a career-high 356 yards, two touchdowns and two interceptions. He also added a 1-yard touchdown rush in the third quarter that gave BC a 20-13 advantage.

Gonzalez caught six passes for 70 yards and two touchdowns. The first, an 18-yard pass that capped a 10-play, 83-yard drive in the second quarter to cut BYU's lead to one point, 13-12. Beck, Ryan's counterpart, completed 38-of-59 passes for 436 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions.

Both teams had numerous scoring opportunities, both late in the fourth quarter and during the opening overtime frame, but failed to convert. Following BYU kicker Jared McLaughlin's 25-yard field goal that tied the score at 23 with 6:30 remaining, BC's drive was cut short at the 38-yard line on an L.V. Whitworth fumble.

BYU (1-2) threatened to score in the team's ensuing drive, but McLaughlin's 44-yard field goal attempt with less than three minutes to play hit the left upright and bounced back. McLaughlin's second opportunity, a 51-yard field goal attempt with eight seconds left, hooked to the left and fell short of the uprights.

The Cougars, whose offense got the ball first to open overtime, set up for a field goal. The snap was fumbled and McLaughlin picked up the loose ball, eventually lofting a pass toward Fui Bakapuna that fell incomplete.

BC, playing in its second double-overtime contest in as many weeks, was denied of its opportunity in the first overtime frame when place kicker Ryan Ohliger (who missed each of two extra-point attempts in regulation) had a 38-yard game-winning field goal attempt blocked by Russ Tialavea.

On the ensuing play from scrimmage, the Eagles, now on offense to begin the second overtime period, scored a touchdown on a 25-yard pass from Ryan to Gonzalez.

Led by Beck, BYU advanced the ball for a first down to the 14-yard line on its second overtime possession. Beck's pass on the next down was deflected by linebacker Robert Francois and scooped up by a diving Jamie Silva, but initially ruled incomplete. For the second successive week, BC was the beneficiary of video replay review, which overturned the ruling on the field and credited Silva with the game-winning interception.

Francois led the Eagles with 14 tackles. Junior Jolonn Dunbar was credited with 10 stops.

Game Four: N.C. State 17, Boston College 15

Carter-Finley Stadium • Raleigh, N.C. • Attendance: 57,583 • Kickoff Time: 8:12 p.m. ET

Quarterback Daniel Evans connected with John Dunlap for a 34-yard touchdown with 8.5 seconds to play to cap a stunning comeback and led North Carolina State past No. 20 Boston College 17-15 before a raucous Carter-Finley Stadium crowd.

After BC running back Andre Callender ran for nine yards on second down to set up third-and-one from the North Carolina State 26, quarterback Matt Ryan fell on a fumbled snap, then Brian Toal was dropped for a two-yard loss on BC's fourth-down conversion attempt and the Wolfpack earned possession of the ball with 47 seconds left.

Down by five points, Evans, who registered his first collegiate start, executed a five-play, 72-yard scoring drive, punctuated by Dunlap's juggling touchdown reception in the back corner of the end zone.

North Carolina State tacked on the extra point, and on the ensuing kickoff, Dejuan Tribble was forced out of bounds at the 37-yard line with no time remaining.

Tribble, whose coverage forced Dunlap to bobble the touchdown reception, had intercepted Evans to give the Eagles possession of the ball with a 15-10 lead and 3:08 remaining in the game.

The Eagles got the ball and got on the scoreboard first, aided by a 15-yard roughing the kicker penalty against North Carolina State on fourth-and-three. Ryan later hit senior receiver Tony Gonzalez on a 22-yard touchdown strike to put the visiting Eagles ahead, 6-0. Place-kicker Ryan Ohliger, who had missed a pair of extra-point attempts the previous week, hooked left and missed his third attempt in two games.

Both teams traded 29-yard field goals to produce the 9-3 halftime score.

Brown and the host Wolfpack opened the second half by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown rush that capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that gave North Carolina State its first lead of the game, 10-9. Boston College responded early in the fourth quarter when Toal scored his eighth career touchdown on a 2-yard run with 12:55 left to play. Callender, who rushed 11 times for 54 yards on the day, rushed five times for 36 yards on the seven-play drive.

With the score at 15-10, BC elected to try for two points. The conversion failed. Ryan completed 13-of-25 attempts for 149 yards, one touchdown and one interception.

Running back L.V. Whitworth rushed 21 times for 109 yards.

Game Five: Boston College 22, Maine 0

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, MA • Attendance: 41,162 • Kickoff Time: 1:05 p.m. ET

Junior running back Andre Callender rushed 11 times for 76 yards, including a 25-yard touchdown run in the second quarter, and junior place-kicker Ryan Ohliger connected on two first-half field goals to lead Boston College to a 22-0 victory over Division I-AA Maine before 41,162 fans in Alumni Stadium on Parents' Weekend.

The Eagles, who improved to 4-1 following a heartbreaking loss to North Carolina State the week before, took an early three-point lead when Ohliger connected from 29 yards on the first drive of the game.

The Black Bears (2-2) were able to hang around early, holding BC to just three first-quarter points. But BC extended its lead by two points in the second quarter when Clarence Megwa blocked Maine punter Kash Keifer's kick in the end zone and Kevin Akins tackled Keifer for the safety.

Callender then capped BC's ensuing six-play scoring drive with a 25-yard touchdown burst — BC's longest touchdown rush of the season at that time — to take a 12-0 lead.

Following true freshman Mark Herzlich's first career interception, quarterback Matt Ryan executed an eight-play, 58-yard drive, ending in Ohliger's 30-yard field goal. Ryan completed all four passing attempts, including a 24-yard strike to Kevin Challenger and a game-high 30-yard pass to Taylor Sele, before Ohliger tacked on the field goal for a 15-0 advantage at halftime.

Ohliger, who had his 40-yard field goal attempt blocked, finished 2-for-3 on the afternoon. Ryan completed 15-of-26 passes for 182 yards in the victory.

Brian Toal converted a 1-yard touchdown rush in the third quarter to conclude the scoring. The score was his team-leading 10th touchdown.

Maine fumbled the ball five times and lost possession three times.

Defensively, Herzlich registered four tackles — including one tackle for a nine-yard loss — and one interception. Herzlich also returned the game's opening kickoff 26 yards to set up the Eagles' opening six-play, scoring drive.

Freshman Alex Albright, senior Larry Anam, freshman Wes Davis and redshirt freshman Brady Smith, who recorded a game-high nine tackles, each recorded one forced fumble.

Game Six: Boston College 22, Virginia Tech 3

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, MA • Attendance: 44,500 • Kickoff Time: 7:47 p.m. ET

Junior quarterback Matt Ryan completed 16 of 29 passes for 174 yards and two touchdowns to senior wide receiver Kevin Challenger and sophomore place-kicker Steve Aponavicius connected on both field goal attempts in his first-career football game to lead Boston College to a 22-3 conference victory over No. 22 Virginia Tech.

The Boston College defense, led by Tyrone Pruitt, who recorded a game-high nine tackles and one forced fumble, and Kevin Akins (six tackles, two sacks), produced four takeaways — two fumble recoveries and two interceptions — and one safety to help lead the Eagles to the ACC victory.

Safety Ryan Glasper and linebacker Jolonn Dunbar each intercepted Hokie quarterback Sean Glennon while DeJuan Tribble and true freshman Alex Albright recovered a fumble apiece.

After a scoreless first quarter the Eagles registered the first points of the game when Ryan threaded a 15-yard touchdown pass to an out-stretched Challenger.

Aponavicius, a walk-on and former high school soccer player who was spotted by graduate assistant Jay Civetti kicking field goals in Alumni Stadium on a walk to an evening class and later joined the team, split the uprights on his first career PAT to give the host Eagles an early 7-0 advantage.

Glasper then intercepted Hokies quarterback Sean Glennon on the Eagles' 46-yard line, giving BC excellent field position. The offense took over and executed a five-play, 54-yard drive, capped by Ryan's touchdown pass to Challenger.

Virginia Tech place-kicker Brandon Pace kicked a 36-yard field goal on the next drive for the team's only points of the game.

The Eagles increased their lead to 10-3, then to 13-3 on consecutive field goals from Aponavicius. The Exton, PA, resident, kicked his first career field-goal attempt — from 36 yards — with 9:11 left to play in the third quarter, then capped the Eagles' second straight scoring drive with a 20-yard field goal.

BC stalled Virginia Tech's initial drive in the fourth quarter and took over with 13:23 remaining. Eleven plays, three third-down conversions and 6:34 later, Ryan connected with Challenger on third-and-five for an 18-yard touchdown pass to give BC a commanding 20-3 lead with less than seven minutes to play.

The Eagles tacked two points onto the scoreboard on a Virginia Tech fourth-and-17 when the snap sailed through punter Nic Schmitt's hands and through the back of the end zone for a safety.

Challenger finished with three receptions for a game-high 45 yards, including two touchdowns. Tight end Ryan Thompson and wide receiver Tony Gonzalez also caught three passes each.

Running backs L.V. Whitworth and Andre Callender combined to carry the ball 31 times for 101 yards. Whitworth rushed 17 times for 60 yards while Callender recorded 30 yards on 14 attempts.

Virginia Tech, which entered the game with a 12-1 record when playing on Thursday night, suffered its second consecutive loss of the season, and first in the last 11 Thursday night contests.

Previously, the Eagles handed the Hokies their only other loss on Thursday night in September of 1995 in Blacksburg, VA.

Game Seven: Boston College 24, Florida State 19

Doak Campbell Stadium • Tallahassee, FL • Attendance: 83,043 • Kickoff Time: 3:36 p.m. ET

Senior cornerback Larry Anam leaped and intercepted Drew Weatherford's Hail Mary pass and fell to the turf in the end zone as time expired to preserve No. 22 Boston College's 24-19 victory over Florida State before 83,043 fans in Doak Campbell Stadium.

Cornerback and classmate Dejuan Tribble had picked off a Weatherford pass with just 20 seconds remaining in the first half and ran 36 yards for a touchdown and the eventual game-winning score. Tribble's return increased the Eagles' margin to 11 points at 21-10 and proved to be the difference as sophomore kicker Steve Aponavicius tacked on BC's only points in the second half on a 26-yard field goal in the third quarter.

Following Weatherford's one-yard touchdown plunge early in the fourth quarter to cut the BC lead in half, linebacker Brian Toal and the BC defense stopped the Seminole offensive attack on fourth-and-four at the BC 9-yard line as Weatherford's pass fell to the ground.

Three rushing attempts for a net gain of zero yards later, the Eagles lined up to punt on fourth-and-10. Johnny Ayers received the snap in the end zone and shuffled to his left as precious seconds ticked off the game clock then backed out of the end zone for a safety to make the score 24-19 with 27 seconds left.

Ten seconds ran off the clock on the ensuing free kick before the Florida State offense lined up on its own 45. On the first of two plays before the conclusion of regulation, Weatherford connected with wide receiver Chris Davis, who ran out of bounds after a gain of 13 yards to the BC 42. The junior quarterback then hurled a deep pass toward FSU's tallest receiver — 6-foot-6 Greg Carr — in the end zone. Anam hauled in the pass and fell to the turf for the game-saving interception.

The win marked just the fourth home defeat suffered by Florida State in 59 ACC games.

Junior quarterback Matt Ryan, who was listed as questionable due to an injury suffered on his left foot in the Eagles' 22-3 defeat of Virginia Tech the previous week, completed 16-of-26 passing attempts for 262 yards and one interception in leading BC to its 12th victory in 14 collegiate starts.

Florida State scored the game's first points on Gary Cismesia's 28-yard field goal at 13:28 of the second quarter.

The host Seminoles halted the Eagles on their next drive and took control on their own 10-yard line. Two plays later, Sulaiman Sanni forced FSU receiver Caz Piurowski to fumble, and freshman defensive back Wes Davis returned the ball 14 yards to the 1-yard line where Toal, a linebacker and short-yardage specialist, scored on his second rushing attempt for BC's first points and a 7-3 lead.

The FSU offense drove 79 yards on the ensuing drive and was capped by Carr's 22-yard touchdown reception to take a 10-7 lead.

Matt Ryan then engineered an eight-play, 73-yard scoring drive himself. Running back L.V. Whitworth (18 rushes, 53 yards) capped the drive with a six-yard touchdown run to give the Eagles the lead for good. Senior captain Jolonn Dunbar recorded a team-high seven tackles, while Tyronne Pruitt, Anam, Jamie Silva and Robert Francois each recorded five tackles or more.

Game Eight: Boston College 41, Buffalo 0

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, MA • Attendance: 42,326 • Kickoff Time: 7:04 p.m. ET

Playing in a torrential downpour with winds gusting up to 50 mph at kickoff, Chris Crane got his first-career start at quarterback and led the Eagles to an impressive 41-0 rout of the Buffalo Bulls.

While more than 40,000 tickets were sold to the game, the adverse weather conditions made for a small crowd at Alumni Stadium. The Eagles scored early and often in this contest, while the defense pitched its second shutout of the season.

On their first drive, the Eagles mounted a 10-play, 47-yard drive to the Buffalo 7-yard line, setting up a 25-yard field goal by Steve Aponavicius that gave BC a 3-0 lead. After holding the Bulls to three-and-out, DeJuan Tribble set up the next drive by returning a punt 69 yards to the Buffalo 15-yard line. Five plays later, Crane took matters into his own hands, rushing four yards to the end zone to put the Eagles up 10-0.

Buffalo's next possession yielded even worse results. On second down, Drew Willy's pass was intercepted by BC's Kevin Akins and returned seven yards to the Buffalo 35-yard line. Crane and the Eagles then mounted an eight-play, 35-yard drive that ended with Crane's second rushing touchdown of the day, this one from seven yards out. The Eagles took a commanding 17-0 lead in the second quarter and the rout was on.

The Eagle defense stiffened again, holding Buffalo to a total of four yards on six plays in its next drive. Taking over at their own 17, the Eagles drove 83 yards in nine plays, highlighted by a 33-yard run by Andre Callender. Crane connected with fullback Mark Palmer for an 8-yard touchdown that gave the Eagles a 24-0 lead, which they took into the locker room at halftime.

The second half began much as the first half ended. True freshman Jeff Smith returned the opening kickoff of the half 42 yards to the BC 49. Three plays later, running back L.V. Whitworth broke free for a 43-yard touchdown run to put the Eagles up 31-0.

Later in the quarter, BC's Jamie Silva intercepted a Willy pass at BC's 39-yard line, then the Eagles mounted a 15-play, 51-yard drive that consumed 6:51. Aponavicius marched onto the field for a 30-yard field goal attempt, which was good. The Eagles took a 34-0 lead into the fourth quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Eagles took over at their 43 and drove 57 yards in nine plays. Running back A.J. Brooks scored his first career touchdown, giving BC the final margin of 41-0.

Despite the adverse weather conditions, Crane completed 17-of-26 passes for 142 yards and a touchdown and rushed for two more. Whitworth rushed for 84 yards and Callender finished with 81 as the Eagles amassed 207 yards on the ground. The Eagles improved to 7-1 with a huge game against Wake Forest looming the following week.

Game Nine: Wake Forest 21, Boston College 14

Groves Stadium • Winston-Salem, NC • Attendance: 32,633 • Kickoff Time: 7:07 p.m. ET

Junior quarterback Matt Ryan set career highs by completing 40-of-57 passes for 402 yards and one touchdown, but Wake Forest defensive back Patrick Ghee intercepted a pass in the end zone with less than one minute to play and No. 16 Boston College fell to the 22nd-ranked Demon Deacons, 21-14.

The two teams entered the game tied for first place in the ACC's Atlantic Division with visions of the league championship game dancing in their heads. In the end, it was Wake Forest that controlled its own destiny the rest of the way.

The Eagles were forced to abandon the running game early, but stayed in the game behind Ryan's arm. Wake struck on its second possession of the first quarter, putting together a six-play, 53-yard drive that culminated in a Willie Idlette reverse for a touchdown that put the Deacons up 7-0.

Two series later, however, Boston College struck back, largely due to pinpoint accuracy on the part of Ryan. As the second quarter began, Ryan connected with Jon Loyte for a 2-yard touchdown pass, Loyte's first-career TD reception, to knot the score at seven.

The Eagle defense held the Deacons on their next possession, but Wake was able to pin BC deep in its own territory and penalties backed the Eagles to their 1-yard line. Johnny Ayers punted and Idlette returned it 13 yards to the BC 46, giving the Deacons excellent field position. On the next play, quarterback Riley Skinner completed a 46-yard TD pass to Nate Morton to give the Deacons a 14-7 lead, which they took into the locker room at halftime.

The Eagles took over to begin the third quarter and drove to the Wake Forest 27. Facing fourth-and-10, BC elected to go for it. Ryan completed a pass to Kevin Challenger for eight yards, but the Deacons took over on downs. One play later, Wake's Kevin Marion rushed around right end for an 81-yard touchdown. Suddenly the Eagles were in a deep hole, trailing 21-7.

Late in the quarter, the Eagles fought back. Taking over at the BC 26, Ryan led the Eagles on an 11-play, 74-yard scoring drive highlighted by a 23-yard completion to running back L.V. Whitworth, a 19-yard strike to Taylor Sele and a 30-yarder to Kevin Challenger. On fourth-and-goal, Ryan took it in himself.

Entering the fourth quarter with Wake Forest leading by a touchdown at 21-14, the BC offense threatened on several drives in the final frame, but came up empty.

Place-kicker Steve Aponavicius missed a 40-yard field goal (his first miss in seven collegiate field-goal attempts), running back L.V. Whitworth (12 rushes, 34 yards) fumbled the football at the Wake 37 and a Demon Deacons' fumble recovered by BC at the Wake Forest 14 was overturned to cap the thwarted BC fourth-quarter scoring opportunities.

Boston College, which saw its four-game win streak come to an end, was also called for 10 penalties for 70 yards. Wake Forest was penalized three times.

Game Ten: Boston College 28, Duke 7

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, MA • Attendance: 42,326 • Kickoff Time: 7:04 p.m. ET

Junior quarterback Matt Ryan completed 23-of-37 passes for 219 yards and two touchdowns while junior running back L.V. Whitworth rushed 13 times for 120 yards to lead No. 22 Boston College to a 28-7 ACC victory over Duke before 42,326 fans in Alumni Stadium.

Boston College, which compiled a season-high 501 yards of total offense, scored one touchdown in each quarter and 21 unanswered points to earn the victory in the first meeting between the teams since Nov. 2, 1929.

Whitworth, who eclipsed the 2,000-yard rushing mark in his career on a 34-yard burst during BC's first play from scrimmage, combined with classmate Andre Callender (15 rushes, 108 yards) to post a season-high 274 yards rushing and two second-half touchdowns in the victory.

After the Eagle defense stopped Duke quarterback Trevor Lewis on fourth down from the BC 2-yard line to preserve their 14-7 lead, Callender capped a 12-play, 97-yard BC scoring drive in the third quarter with a 26-yard touchdown run to increase the BC margin to 14 points at 21-7 with 5:34 on the clock.

Whitworth responded on the Eagles' ensuing drive with a 7-yard touchdown rush to finish the scoring at 28-7 with 13:42 left in the game.

Duke (0-10, 0-6 ACC) scored its only points of the game to tie the score at 10:43 of the second quarter. Sophomore running back Clifford Harris, whose game-high 52-yard run gave the visiting Blue Devils a first down on the BC 5-yard line, recorded his first collegiate touchdown on a 1-yard run two plays later to tie the score at 7 with 10:43 left in the half.

Ryan gave the host Eagles the lead for good with 31 seconds left in the first half when he faked a handoff to short-yardage specialist Brian Toal on third down and goal and hit junior tight end Jon Loyte for a 1-yard touchdown pass. The touchdown pass, Ryan's ACC-leading 12th of the season, capped a nine-play scoring drive in which the junior quarterback completed 7-of-8 passes.

Ryan's 24-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Challenger made it 7-0 at 9:10 of the first quarter. Challenger's touchdown reception marked his team-high fifth of the season.

Sophomore wide receiver Brandon Robinson led six Boston College receivers who caught multiple passes with a game-high five receptions for 56 yards. Tight end Ryan Purvis and Challenger caught four passes apiece.

Toal, whose fumble marked the first in 39 career rushing attempts, collected his second-career interception late in the first half.

Cornerback DeJuan Tribble and linebacker Robert Francois led BC's defensive effort with five solo tackles each.

November 18, 2006

Game Eleven: Boston College 38, Maryland 16

Alumni Stadium • Chestnut Hill, MA • Attendance: 44,500 • Kickoff Time: 12:02 p.m. ET

Junior linebacker Jolonn Dunbar scored two of BC's three defensive touchdowns as the Eagles defeated the visiting Maryland Terrapins 38-16 on senior day at Alumni Stadium.

Maryland got the ball first and running back Danny Oquendo was in for a rude awakening as BC's Larry Anam jarred the ball loose on a hard-hitting tackle, forcing a fumble. Dunbar scooped up the loose ball and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown. With less than a minute gone, BC took a 7-0 lead.

On Maryland's next possession, it was much of the same.

Tailback Lance Ball fumbled the ball and Dunbar scooped it up again and headed for the end zone. Dunbar's 38-yard touchdown run made him only the fourth player in NCAA history to recover two fumbles for touchdowns in the same game. Before ever touching the ball on an offensive series, BC had a 14-0 lead.

Early in the second quarter, Maryland put together a drive, but on third-and-long, BC's DeJuan Tribble made a big stop, forcing a field goal that cut BC's lead to 14-3.

The Eagles took over and mounted their first offensive scoring drive of the day, highlighted by an 18-yard Matt Ryan pass to Ryan Purvis and a 21-yard completion to Taylor Sele. Ryan then connected with Tony Gonzalez for a 34-yard touchdown, giving Gonzalez the sixth touchdown catch of his career of 25 yards or more. Suddenly the Eagles had taken a commanding 21-3 lead.

On Maryland's next possession, the Eagles held the Terps to three plays and out. Taking over at the 2:24 mark in the first half, Ryan engineered a seven-play, 58-yard touchdown drive that culminated in an 17-yard completion to Brandon Robinson. With less than a minute remaining in the first half, the Eagles took a 28-3 lead. Maryland managed to drive for a field goal as time expired in the first half. The Eagles led 28-6 at halftime.

In the third quarter, BC got the ball first but the Maryland defense held and the Eagles were forced to punt. Maryland drove to the BC 29, but the drive stalled and the Terrapins were forced to settle for a field goal to make it 28-9.

On Maryland's next offensive series, Tribble intercepted a Sam Hollenbach pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. It was Tribble's second interception return for a touchdown of the season. The Eagles led the Terrapins 35-9.

A celebration penalty and a personal foul on the Eagles, however, gave Maryland excellent field position, and the Terrapins were able to take it in for a touchdown to make the score 35-16.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Eagles mounted an eight-play, 50-yard scoring drive. Steve Aponavicius connected on a 21-yard field goal at the 13:11 mark in the fourth quarter to give BC the final 38-16 margin of victory.

The Eagles finished the 2006 season undefeated at home. Matt Ryan ran his record to 13-3 as a starter. The 2006 senior class tied the 2005 senior class as the winningest in school history with a 35-15 record.

Game Twelve: Miami (FL) 17, Boston College 14

Orange Bowl Stadium • Coral Gables, FL • Attendance: 23,308 • Kickoff Time: 8:06 p.m. ET

Miami held BC to 24 net yards rushing en route to a 17-14 Thanksgiving night victory in the Orange Bowl in the Eagles' final regular-season game of the 2006 season.

The Eagles entered the game ranked 18th and favored over the unranked Hurricanes. The game was played on the 22nd anniversary of Doug Flutie's famous "Miracle in Miami" Hail Mary pass.

Boston College struck first. After it pinned the Hurricanes back to their 12-yard line, the Eagle defense forced a punt. BC took over on its own 48-yard line and drove 52 yards in seven plays, highlighted by a Matt Ryan 23-yard completion to Andre Callender, followed by consecutive Callender rushes of seven and five yards, the latter of which was a touchdown.

The Eagles took a 7-0 lead into the second quarter and stopped a Miami drive at the BC 32, where Jon Peattie missed a 49-yard field goal when the ball hit the upright. One play later, however, Ryan fumbled the snap and the ball was recovered by Miami's Jon Beason on the BC 29. The Eagle defense held, however, and Peattie connected on a 43-yard field goal to trim BC's margin to 7-3.

With less than two minutes remaining in the first half, BC cornerback DeJuan Tribble picked off a Kirby Freeman pass and ran it 22 yards to the end zone. BC took a 14-3 lead and seemingly had all the momentum as halftime neared.

Miami recovered, however, using a 49-yard pass from Freeman to Ryan Moore, to advance to the BC 24. Freeman connected with Javarris James on a 17-yard pass to the BC 7-yard line and one play later, Freeman completed a touchdown pass to Lance Leggett. Suddenly, momentum had swung back in the other direction as Miami trimmed the lead to 14-10 at halftime.

On BC's first offensive possession of the second half, the Eagles drove to the Miami 30, but Ryan was sacked for a 6-yard loss. On fourth down, the Eagles went for it, but Ryan's 9-yard pass to Ryan Purvis was not enough for the first down and Miami took over.

Miami then mounted a seven-play, 73-yard drive highlighted by Freeman completions of 28 and 30 yards. James rushed for a two-yard touchdown with 7:09 remaining in the third quarter, giving the Hurricanes the 17-14 lead.

With 2:40 remaining in the game, BC took over at its own 26. Ryan completed a 21-yard pass to A.J. Brooks, who stopped the clock by going out of bounds at the BC 47. Thoughts of another miracle comeback entered the minds of the BC faithful, but it was not to be. Ryan's next pass was intercepted by Glenn Sharpe, and the Hurricanes were able to run out the clock.

Tribble tied a BC single-game record for interceptions with three.

Game Thirteen: Boston College 25, Navy 24

Meineke Car Care Bowl • Charlotte, N.C. • Attendance: 52,303 • Kickoff Time: 1:03 p.m. ET

Interim Head Coach Frank Spaziani etched his name into the BC record books as the only undefeated coach in school history when he led the Eagles to a 25-24, come-from-behind victory over Navy in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. Spaziani was given the interim title after Tom O'Brien departed for N.C. State and he led the Eagles through their bowl game preparations.

Junior quarterback Matt Ryan was named the game's Most Valuable Player after he completed 20-of-29 passes for 242 yards and one touchdown. Junior tri-captain Jolonn Dunbar was a monster on defense, racking up 14 total tackles, including 10 solos, four tackles-for-loss, a sack and a key fumble recovery.

Boston College drew first blood in this contest after Navy's Matt Hall fumbled the ball, which was recovered by BC's Ron Brace at the Navy 37. Six plays later, Ryan scored on a 2-yard keeper. Place-kicker Steve Aponavicius, however, missed the first PAT of his career; the Eagles went up 6-0.

That lead, however, was short-lived as Navy took over on its own 12-yard line and put together an impressive 10-play, 88-yard scoring drive. With a 7-6 lead, Navy's Jeremy McGown then intercepted a Matt Ryan pass and returned it 11 yards to the 44-yard line. Early in the second quarter, Navy capitalized on the error when Zerb Singleton rushed five yards for a touchdown to cap off an eight-play, 44-yard scoring drive.

Down 14-6, the Eagles then mounted a scoring drive of their own, highlighted by a 23-yard pass from Ryan to senior wide receiver Tony Gonzalez that placed the Eagles on the Navy 1-yard line. One play later, junior Brian Toal took it in for the score to bring the Eagles back within one at 14-13.

But the Midshipmen struck back quickly, driving 65 yards on six plays to take a 21-13 lead. Late in the second quarter, the Eagles drove to the Navy nine where Aponavicius connected on a 26-yard field goal to cut the lead to 21-16.

On their first drive of the second half, however, Navy returned the favor, connecting on a 22-yarder to take a 24-16 lead. Early in the fourth quarter, punter Johnny Ayers set up an important series of events when he punted 54 yards to down the ball at the Navy 6-yard line. The Eagle defense forced a four-and-out, and BC took over at the Navy 36. Five plays later, Ryan connected with tight end Ryan Purvis for a 24-yard scoring strike. When the two-point conversion failed, BC faced a 24-22 deficit.

Navy took over and mounted a drive to try to kill the clock. On third-and-six with less than two minutes left in the game, Navy's Greg Sudderth rushed for a first down that would have iced the game, but the Midshipmen were called for a holding penalty. One play later, Navy's Reggie Campbell fumbled the ball, which was recovered by Dunbar. The Eagles had new life.

Ryan completed a 15-yard pass to Purvis to the Navy 21 to get the Eagles within field goal range. As time expired, Aponavicius connected from 37 yards. Almost miraculously, the Eagles had won yet another bowl game.

BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Boston College Traditions

The Eagles Take Off

The Eagle nickname and mascot for Boston College's teams were born through the eloquence of one Rev. Edward McLaughlin. Fr. McLaughlin, incensed at a Boston newspaper cartoon depicting the champion BC track team as a cat licking clean a plate of its rivals, penned a passionate letter to the student newspaper, The Heights, in 1920. "It is important that we adopt a mascot to preside at our pow-wows and triumphant feats," Fr. McLaughlin wrote. "And why not the Eagle, symbolic of majesty, power and freedom? Its natural habitat is the high places. Surely the Heights is made to order for such a selection."

And so it was. The eagle was adopted as mascot and nickname that same year. The national attention that followed brought gifts of two live mascots, from Texas and New Mexico, but neither bird found Chestnut Hill to its liking — one escaped and the other injured its beak trying.

For some 40 years, the Boston College mascot was a stuffed and mounted golden eagle that resided in the athletics department offices. But in 1961, a committee of students launched an effort to find a live Aquila chrysaetos to represent BC. Thus, the era of Margo commenced.

Margo (a combination of the first letters of the school colors) was a 10-pound, two-month-old female golden eagle given to the University by a Colorado man in August 1961. For five years, the bird lived at the Franklin Park Zoo, attended every BC home contest tethered to a sizeable perch, and even made the traveling squad for games with Army, Holy Cross and Syracuse. Its reign ended unhappily early in the 1966 season when it succumbed to a virus just before a road trip to Annapolis for a game against Navy.

By that time, the status of the eagle as an endangered species made it undesirable for Boston College to replace Margo. The University soon opted to fill the void by following a national sports trend: using a costumed human mascot to cavort the sidelines and exhort the faithful.

Flying the Colors

Like so many athletic traditions at Boston College, the adoption of the school colors started with the students. In the mid-1880s, BC students were ardent for their teams, but had no way of visually proclaiming where their loyalties lay.

As a story in The Heights on those early years noted, "A college man going to the games had no striped tie to wear. Nor was there any arm-band of a significant color that might let the wide world know that the 'fair' rooters, screeching so loudly at anything at all, were followers of the Boston College team."

A committee of students, led by the school-spirited T.J. Hurley (class of 1885 and composer of "Alma Mater" and "For Boston"), was appointed to determine which hue would best represent BC.

After considering the colors of rival Jesuit institutions — Holy Cross's purple, Fordham's maroon, Georgetown's blue and gray — the committee selected two of the Papal colors: maroon and gold. The student body unanimously approved.

The first use of the Boston College colors was in a banner sewn by women attending the New England Conservatory of Music, which was located near BC at that time on James Street in the South End. The banner flew at every college event until its sudden and mysterious disappearance. But the Maroon and Gold continues as the rallying symbol for Boston College rooters everywhere.

Drumming Up Spirit

College football would not be college football without marching bands to rouse stadium crowds on crisp fall afternoons and keep spirits lively during halftimes. None is more celebrated in New England than the Eagles Marching Band.

Boston College Traditions

More than 150 strong, the band, under Director of Bands Sebastian Bonaiuto and Assistant Director David Healey, lends the dynamic sound and crisp maneuvers to events ranging from the Allston-Brighton Parade to a New England Patriots' halftime show.

But BC's troupe of musicians, color guard and twirlers never shine brighter than on game days in Chestnut Hill. The band warms up with the traditional pregame march across campus, followed by a concert at Commander Shea Field, where Boston College fans gather for tailgating. Then it's into Alumni Stadium, where the band does its part to help the Eagles emerge victorious. The highlight of each game day is the half-time production. In past years, the marching band has performed stirring versions of Stravinsky's "Firebird," "Phantom of the Opera," "Les Miserables," a Fifties rock 'n' roll revue and music from "West Side Story," "Aladdin," "Lion King" and the Beatles.

The Eagles' commitment to winning football is matched by the marching band's commitment to winning musical performances. During the season, band members practice each Tuesday and Thursday evening, and on Saturday mornings prior to every Alumni Stadium game. This proud corps also holds its own version of preseason: for 10 consecutive years, members have returned to campus one week early for summer band camp.

The diligence pays off — in opportunities to perform at games like 1988's Emerald Isle Classic in Dublin, Ireland, and in all postseason bowl contests; and in the spirit that fills Alumni Stadium each time the strains of "For Boston" erupt after a Maroon-and-Gold scoring strike.

Cheering on the Team

The Boston College cheerleaders are a group of energetic and athletic students devoted to the traditions of BC and its school spirit. The Boston College cheerleaders have grown to include two squads within the team: an all-girl Gold squad consisting of 20 members and a co-ed Maroon squad consisting of 14 members. The cheerleaders not only cheer for home and away football games and bowl games, but also travel each summer to preseason camp, perform at home men's and women's basketball events and postseason tournaments, and compete at the UCA National Cheerleading Competition in Orlando, FL.

Superfans

As juniors in the 1997-98 school year, Jeff Bridge and Chris Millette embarked on a mission that would change the atmosphere at Boston College football games. The two fans started to plan a way to make games at Boston College more exciting. They created a "Gold Rush Game" and sold gold "Superfans" T-shirts for just a few dollars in the BC Bookstore. Today, the gold-clad "BC Superfans" can be seen en masse not only at football games but at basketball, ice hockey and other events as well.

Doug Flutie: 1984 Heisman Trophy Winner

Doug Flutie is the quintessential football performer. Between the 1981 and 1984 college football seasons, he produced a major college career record of 11,054 yards of total offense (10,579 of them from passing, another national career record).

He first appeared on the collegiate scene in the fall of 1981 starting in the fourth game of his freshman year in an already-lost game at Penn State. He raked Joe Paterno's defense for 135 passing yards and a touchdown and won the starting job with that performance.

He went on to post a 30-11-1 overall record as a starter while also leading BC to three postseason bowls, the school's first postseason play in 40 years. He was the game MVP of the Tangerine Bowl in his sophomore year against Auburn and the Liberty Bowl in his junior year vs. Notre Dame.

Flutie's last-chance, game-winning drives were the stuff of Hollywood screenwriters. As long as there was time on the clock, Flutie always believed that it was possible to win.

And in those rare instances when it didn't happen, it was only because he had run out of time — not out of opportunity.

The best thing about watching Flutie in a game was wondering what astounding feat he would perform that day. Those feats weren't always game-winning plays, but often a series of individual plays within a game that, when totaled, made victory possible.

No obstacle on the field ever seemed too great to overcome.

While gifted with great mobility and an uncanny talent to "photograph" an opposing defense and then pick it apart at his whim, perhaps his greatest talent was an innate sense of how to win — an asset that never was coached into him.

When he wasn't rolling up prodigious amounts of passing yards, Flutie tantalized his foes with his scrambling and finished his career with more than 700 rushing yards.

Then, there was the size factor — "Little Doug" playing in a land of giants. Of course, "Little Doug" was just as tall as the average American male, about 5-10. Perception soon became reality and a "little" man, real or imagined, wasn't supposed to accomplish what he did on a football field.

As a sophomore, he engineered a memorable tie against defending national champion Clemson. After the nationally televised game, CBS commentator Pat Haden, himself a smallish quarterback who succeeded at USC, sought him out and told him, "Don't ever let anyone tell you that you are too small to play this game."

Yet, he also was a man of the people. He went to class with other students; he ate on the same meal plan they used; he played pick-up basketball games in the gym with them; and he never sought an exalted place in either his campus or personal life.

He thrived in his family setting away from the adulation, glitz and glitter of his fame. One of the happiest moments of a momentous senior year was playing with his younger brother Darren, then a freshman wide receiver.

Oddly enough, Flutie eschewed scholarship offers from Holy Cross and Syracuse, who wanted to make him a defensive back despite his fine performances at quarterback for Natick High School, in Boston's Metro-west suburbs.

But Boston College got him with an assurance by new head coach Jack Bicknell that he would be given a full shot.

In 1983, he was key in the Eagles' upset victory over Alabama and another last-second win against Temple. His team lost to Notre Dame in the Liberty Bowl, but he was named game MVP.

All of that simply set the table for his amazing senior season in 1984. He threw six touchdown passes in a 52-20 romp over North Carolina; got four in an opening-game victory over Western Carolina; and three each against Rutgers, Army and Holy Cross; and of course, his fabled, last-play touchdown pass to Gerard Phelan to beat Miami stood above all else.

In 1984, Doug Flutie became the first player in Boston College history to win college football's grandest individual award — the Heisman Trophy.

It capped an unbelievable 9-2 season that included the astounding victory over Miami, a victory over Houston in the Cotton Bowl and a No. 5 national ranking.

He was the single-most exciting and resourceful player in college football that season. In addition to being named the starting quarterback on every major 1984 all-America team and winning the Heisman, he also won the Maxwell Award, given to the nation's outstanding college football player; the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award; and numerous player of the year awards.

He also scored in the classroom, where he won a National Football Foundation post-graduate scholarship and was nominated as a candidate for a Rhodes Scholarship.

Following his graduation from BC, Flutie was selected in the 11th round of the National Football League Draft by the Los Angeles Rams. He opted for a career in the United States Football League and played for the New Jersey Generals in 1985.

He played in the NFL for the Chicago Bears from 1986-87 and the New England Patriots from 1987-89.

Flutie then headed to the Canadian Football League for eight seasons and played for British Columbia (1990-91), Calgary (1992-95) and Toronto (1996-97). Flutie was named the CFL's most outstanding player an unprecedented six times, led the league in passing five times and helped his team capture the Grey Cup three times (Toronto in 1996-97 and Calgary in 1992).

He returned to the NFL on Jan. 20, 1998, when he signed a free agent contract with the Buffalo Bills. During the 1998 season, he led the Bills to a playoff spot and was named to the Pro Bowl. He was named the NFL comeback player of the year by the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly.

The 2005 NFL season saw Flutie return home to play for the New England Patriots. Flutie retired from the NFL in 2006 and serves as a football commentator for ABC/ESPN.

Flutie and his family founded the Doug Flutie, Jr., Foundation for Autism. The group focuses on raising awareness and support for those affected by the disorder with which their son has been diagnosed. The foundation can be reached at 617-451-9393.

In May, it was announced that Flutie will headline the 2007 College Football Hall of Fame class. Flutie was selected in his first year of eligibility and will be inducted at the 50th Annual Awards Dinner on December 4, 2007, at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City. The class will be officially enshrined at the Hall in South Bend, Ind., during ceremonies in the summer of 2008.

BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Mike Ruth: 1985 Outland Trophy Winner

Mike Ruth is the only Boston College player to win the Outland Trophy, presented to the nation's best interior offensive or defensive lineman. Though his team had a losing record, Ruth was honored in 1985, the only time a player from a non-winning team has been recognized.

At 6-1 and 265 pounds, he not only was the team's strongest player — he had a record 560-pound bench press as a junior — but he also was the quickest lineman.

He mauled the offensive linemen who tried to block him, often tossing them aside like rag dolls; or he fooled them with his cat-like quickness that helped him elude double teams by centers and guards until it was almost monotonous to watch.

The combination of his strength and quickness helped him accumulate a couple dozen sacks and nearly 300 tackles during his career.

Injuries once more dogged him as a senior but not enough that he didn't excel on a team that won only four of 12 games.

Ruth had built a tremendous reputation during his junior season and really secured the Outland

Trophy in the 1985 season's first game, the Kickoff Classic against Brigham Young University at Giants Stadium in New Jersey.

He relentlessly harassed BYU's quarterbacks the entire game, convincing the trophy's voters that he still was the country's best interior lineman. His play for the rest of the season did nothing to diminish that impression.

Ruth showed as a freshman during the 1982 season that he would be special when, playing a backup role, he accumulated 36 tackles and three quarterback sacks.

Though dogged by a season-long ankle injury as a sophomore in 1983, he more than doubled his tackles to 80 and had 7.5 sacks.

In 1984, as the key to the Eagles defensive strength, Ruth had 102 tackles, 76 of them solo. He had 6.5 sacks, but also was credited with 20 quarterback pressures and seven other minus-yard plays. In the 1984 game against Holy Cross, he pressured the Crusader quarterback into throwing five interceptions.

Away from the field, he was just as unique.

For most of his time at BC, he seriously considered a vocation to the priesthood. He was a very value-oriented person who practiced what he preached. Often, the night before a game, the team would watch a movie he found objectionable and he simply sat outside the meeting room where it was being shown, and studied.

When his teammates emerged, he rejoined them for the team's late-night snack and everything was very comfortable for all concerned.

His mother was a victim of severe arthritis, so bad that at times she could not walk down the aisle in his family's parish church outside Philadelphia. No matter. Mike simply picked her up in his massive arms and carried her to her pew; and when it came time for her to receive Holy Communion, he carried her to the altar and back again.

He was team captain in 1985, his Outland Trophy year, but his leadership, even in a losing season, remained true to his personality. He told everyone before that season that he was not a holler guy, that his leadership would be by example. He never wavered and played as intensely as he had the previous seasons.

Ruth came to BC from Norristown, Pa., where he graduated from Methacton High School. He was a third-team all-state pick and was the team captain.

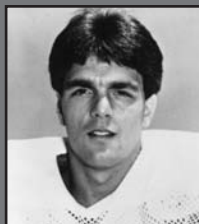

After his Boston College career, Ruth was a second-round draft pick (42nd pick overall) of the New England Patriots and played for the team in 1986-87.

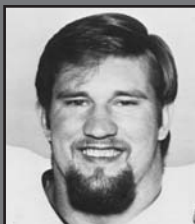

Retired Numbers and Jerseys

Never again will a Boston College football player wear the number 22 or 68. Those two retired numbers belonged to quarterback Doug Flutie and nose tackle Mike Ruth, respectively.

Ruth was the winner of the 1985 Outland Trophy, given to the outstanding interior lineman in the nation by the Football

Writers Association of America.

These two numbers were retired in a ceremony on October 8, 1998, as the Eagles played Virginia Tech.

Seven other former Boston College football players have received the honor of having their jerseys retired — Art Donovan, Bill Flynn, Gene Goodreault, Mike Holovak, Charles O'Rourke, Tony Thurman and Louis Urban.

Holovak, O'Rourke, Thurman and Urban were honored in ceremonies on September 12, 1998, as the Eagles beat Rutgers.

A four-year letterwinner at end and team captain in 1923, Urban played on Boston College teams that compiled an overall record of 25-7, including the 1920 team that went 8-0 and gave the school its first "Eastern Championship." He was a consensus first-team all-America selection in that season.

O'Rourke's Boston College teams compiled a cumulative record of 26-3-2. "Chuckin' Charlie" helped lead the Eagles to an 11-0 record in 1940, capped by the Sugar Bowl championship and the claim of a national championship. He was inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1972.

Holovak's Boston College teams finished 26-5 and he is known as one of the top running backs in school history. He scored all three Eagle touchdowns in the 1943 Orange Bowl and averaged 15.8 yards per carry in that contest against Alabama. A consensus first-team all-American in 1942, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1985.

Thurman was a consensus first team all-America pick in 1984 as a defensive back and still holds the school career records for interceptions in a game (3), season (12) and career (25).

Flynn, who was honored in ceremonies at 1999's Miami game, was associated with Boston College athletics for nearly seven decades as a student-athlete, faculty member, coach and director of athletics. He played football at Boston College from 1936-38, serving as team captain in '38. He also played hockey and became the first Boston College player to score 20 goals in a season. Flynn returned to the University in 1945 as a mathematics teacher and assistant football coach and seven years later became the Alumni Association executive secretary. Flynn was the director of athletics for the Eagles from 1957 to 1990 and during his tenure, Boston College expanded its varsity sports programs and constructed most of its major athletic facilities.

Donovan, who was honored at 1999's Pittsburgh game, was a four-year letterman for the Eagles from 1946-49 and was an outstanding lineman for his teams that went a combined 20-13-3. In the professional ranks, he played on two world championship teams in 12 seasons as a perennial all-pro selection at defensive tackle for the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in 1968.

Goodreault, who was honored at 2001's Pittsburgh game at Alumni Stadium, was a member of the Boston College football team that won the 1941 Sugar Bowl. He lettered for the Eagles from 1938 to 1940 as an end and was a consensus first-team all-America pick in 1940, including a spot on the Walter Camp All-America team.

Boston College 3

Frank Leahy came to Boston College in 1939, succeeding the immortal Gil Dobie, and immediately declared, "I did not come to BC to fail." Nor did the 29-year old protégé of Knute Rockne, who had tutored Fordham's mighty Seven Blocks of Granite.

His team was ranked 11th nationally when it faced Clemson in the Cotton Bowl — the first New England team to participate in a bowl game in 20 years. The Eagles took a 3-0 lead on Alex Lukachik's 36-yard field goal, but Clemson roared right back on its next possession, and Charley Timmons ran for a score.

That was it for the day. Banks McFadden knocked down three Charley O'Rourke passes in the end zone in the fourth quarter, and BC drove to the Clemson 8-yard line late in the game but failed to score.

Sugar Bowl

January 1, 1941 • New Orleans, LA

Boston College 19
Tennessee 13

In Leahy's second year, the Eagles went unbeaten in 11 games and finished with their highest national ranking ever, thanks to a gritty come-from-behind 19-13 win over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl.

The Volunteers, who had not lost a regular season game in three years, led 7-0 at the half, but Joe Zablski's recovery of a blocked punt set up Harry Connolly's game-tying touchdown and extra point in the third quarter.

Tennessee came back to take a 13-7 lead, but Mike Holovak ended a 60-yard drive when he scored BC's second touchdown. However, Leahy elected to run Holovak for the extra point which was stopped. The score remained tied, 13-13.

Don Currivan blocked a Tennessee field goal in the fourth quarter and started BC on its winning drive. Two passes to Ed Zablski from Charlie O'Rourke got the ball to the Vols' 30-yard line, and two plays later, O'Rourke, behind Hank Toczylowski's block, ran 24 yards for the winning touchdown.

This contest was a wild affair, as Boston College took a 14-0 lead on two of Mike Holovak's three touchdowns on the day. Holovak's first touchdown came on a 65-yard run and his second on a 35-yard sweep.

After Alabama fought back and took a 19-14 lead, Holovak scored his third touchdown of the day on a two-yard plunge. Harry Connolly's extra-point gave the Eagles a 21-19 lead. By this time, injuries had begun to pile up for BC (Mario Gianelli, one of the team's best linemen, broke his toe getting dressed for the game and never played), and Alabama took the lead for good on a field goal. The Tide soon took a 28-21 advantage and the Eagles missed their tying chance when they were unable to score from the 8-yard line in the fourth quarter.

Tangerine Bowl

December 18, 1982 • Orlando, FL
Auburn 33
Boston College 26

Eagle quarterback Doug Flutie put on a dazzling performance, completing 22-of-38 passes for 299 yards and two touchdowns (he also scored on a 5-yard run and accounted for a pair of two-point-conversions), but the Eagles' furious second-half rally fell just short of victory.

The Eagles scored on the first drive of the game and then played tremendous defense, stopping the nationally ranked Auburn Tigers twice on drives inside their own 5-yard line without surrendering a touchdown.

The Tigers used their blinding outside speed to score three second-quarter touchdowns and increased their lead to 33-10 by the end of the third.

Boston College's coaches and players never gave up and battled back in the fourth quarter of the nationally televised game that saw Flutie throw scoring strikes to tight end Scott Nizolek and wide receiver Brian Brennan in a last-ditch effort to win.

Brennan caught seven passes for 149 yards and one touchdown in the game, but it was Flutie who was named Outstanding Offensive Player by the national broadcast crews.

Notre Dame 19

Despite bitter 11-degree temperatures, Doug Flutie shined once again in postseason action, completing 16 of 37 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns. The Fighting Irish, however, also tallied three TDs and emerged a one-point victor.

On BC's first possession, Flutie marched the Eagles 63 yards in seven plays, culminated by a 17-yard scoring toss to Brian Brennan. Notre Dame's Allen Pinkett plunged over from the 1-yard line, and following Mike Johnston's extra-point kick (the only PAT conversion of the night), the Irish were ahead at the end of the first quarter, 7-6. Notre Dame scored twice in the second quarter before Gerard Phelan snagged a 28-yard pass from Flutie for a touchdown, which closed the gap to 19-12 at halftime.

Scott Gieselmann grabbed a 3-yard touchdown flip from Flutie midway through the third quarter, but the contest was a deadlocked defensive struggle for the remainder of the evening. With 1:08 left on a fourth-down situation on Notre Dame's 35, Flutie's toss intended for Joe Giaquinto up the middle fell incomplete.

Tailback Troy Stradford was the Eagles leading ground gainer with 51 yards on 16 carries. Flutie, however, was named the game's Most Valuable Player for his aerial efforts.

Cotton Bowl

January 1, 1985 • Dallas, TX

Boston College 45
Houston 28

Four months to the day after the memorable 1984 season began, it ended with the Eagles' first postseason Bowl victory in 44 years.

Before 56,522 (67,381 paid) at the frigid Cotton Bowl (32 windy, drizzly degrees) and another CBS-TV national audience, Heisman Trophy winner Doug Flutie (13 for 37, 180 yards) threw two scoring passes in the first quarter to boost BC to a 17-7 lead. Kelvin Martin's 63-yard touchdown grab to open the scoring was the longest aerial connection of the year for the Eagles. Flutie would add his Cotton Bowl-record third touchdown pass later in the contest.

Houston trimmed two touchdowns off BC's 31-14 halftime lead before the Eagle ground game asserted itself. Steve Strachan (23 carries, 91 yards, 2 TDs, earning him Offensive MVP honors) and Troy Stradford (CBS-Chevrolet MVP with 20 rushes, 196 yards and 2 TDs) wore down the Cougar defense with their punishing carries and both scored fourth-quarter touchdowns to ice the game.

Eagle quarterback Shawn Halloran connected with wide receiver Kelvin Martin on a 5-yard touchdown pass with just 32 seconds remaining in the game to give Boston College a thrilling 27-24 victory over the Georgia Bulldogs in the first Hall of Fame Bowl game in Tampa, FL.

The perfectly timed touchdown toss capped a sparkling 76-yard drive that began with just 2:38 left on the clock and Georgia holding a 24-20 edge.

The Eagles started the game in high gear, with Halloran picking apart the Bulldogs' defense for 22 completions in his first 31 attempts — good for 242 yards, a touchdown and a 20-7 lead at intermission.

Georgia roared back in the second half, however, outscoring the Eagles 17-0 until BC's magical final drive.

Tailback Troy Stradford shared the spotlight with Halloran and Martin in the game, rushing for 122 yards and a touchdown on 20 carries and pulling in seven passes for 48 more yards — including a 12-yard reception that set up the Halloran-to-Martin game-winner.

Hall of Fame Bowl

January 1, 1993 • Tampa, FL

Tennessee 38

Boston College 23

The Eagles' first bowl appearance in six years fell short of being a success as a 17-point scoring blitz by Tennessee in the third quarter broke open a close game and gave the speedy Volunteers a lead that could not be matched. BC had some outstanding performances from tight end Pete Mitchell, who set a Hall of Fame Bowl receiving record with nine catches for 100 yards (and a pair of scores), and from quarterback Glenn Foley, who clicked on 23-of-46 passes for 268 yards and threw a pair of two-point conversions in addition to the two TD passes to Mitchell.

Vols' quarterback Heath Shuler hurt the Eagles with two rushing and two passing scores, including a 69-yarder to Mose Phillips that gave Tennessee a 31-7 lead late in the third period.

BC rallied in the final quarter with Foley's 17-yard TD pass to Mitchell and Darnell Campbell's 7-yard scoring dash, each of which was followed by a successful two-point conversion play, but the clock ran out on BC's strong closing effort with the Eagles still two scores shy of victory.

Bowl Game History

Carquest Bowl

January 1, 1994 • Miami, FL
Boston College 31
Virginia 13

Glenn Foley put on another masterful passing show in leading the Eagles to the Carquest Bowl championship before a CBS national television audience. The Virginia Cavaliers gave BC an early scare, picking off Foley's second pass of the game and converting it into a touchdown and a 7-0 advantage just 1:05 into the game.

But Foley would make few mistakes in the ensuing 58 minutes and 55 seconds of play. In this, his final collegiate appearance, Foley would go on to set eight Blockbuster/Carquest Bowl records, passing for 391 yards and three touchdowns and earning himself the game's Most Valuable Player award.

Foley showcased the Eagles' lightning-like attack, firing scoring passes of 78 (to Clarence Cannon) and 46 yards (to Keith Miller), along with a five-yarder for Cannon's second score. Fullback Darnell Campbell wrapped up the day's scoring with a 12-yard touchdown burst on the first play of the fourth quarter.

As usual, tight end Pete Mitchell was Foley's favorite target, catching seven passes for 82 yards of real estate.

Overall, the Eagle offense was splendid. When the game ended, BC had gained a whopping 557 yards — nearly seven yards per play.

Defensively, Stephen Boyd once again led BC in tackles with 14. His fellow linebacker Brian Howlett chipped in with nine stops, while free safety Terence Wiggins added eight and tackle Chris Sullivan had seven. The Eagles held the Cavs to just 85 yards on the ground.

Jeep Eagle Aloha Bowl

December 25, 1994 • Honolulu, HI
Boston College 12
Kansas State 7

In a spectacular defensive effort, the Eagles stopped eighth-ranked Kansas State cold — completely erasing the Wildcats' ground attack (minus 61 yards on the day) and sacking quarterback Chad May eight times. The Kansas State offense could not manage a touchdown in the game; the Wildcats' only points came on a blocked punt, which was recovered in the end zone.

Eagle defensive end Mike Mamula, playing in what would be his final collegiate game, was named the Aloha Bowl Most Valuable Player after notching four quarterback sacks, including one for a safety that proved to be the winning points of the contest for Boston College.

Offensively, the Eagles mounted a textbook drive on their first possession of the game — covering 78 yards on five rushing attempts by David Green and Justice Smith. Green rolled off 51 of those yards on BC's first play from scrimmage, and Smith capped the quick strike with a touchdown run from two yards out. For Green, who would accumulate 121 yards on a workhorse 28 carries in this game, it was his seventh 100-plus yard performance of his fine senior season.

Kansas State scored on the blocked punt on the last play of the first quarter, and both defenses dueled in front of an ABC-TV national audience before the Eagles were able to muster another long drive in the fourth period that culminated in David Gordon's 35-yard field goal with 1:18 left. The key play of that successful late drive was a 46-yard pass from Mark Hartsell to wide receiver Kenyatta Watson.

Bowl Game History

Insight.com Bowl

December 31, 1999 • Tucson, AZ

Colorado 62
Boston College 28

The Eagles traveled to Tucson, Ariz., to face off with the Colorado Buffaloes in the Insight.com Bowl.

Colorado began the game with a 65-yard drive that resulted in the first touchdown. The Eagles returned the favor with a drive of their own, but John Match missed a field goal and Colorado took over again. The Buffaloes charged down the field, scoring another touchdown. The Buffaloes would score again before the first quarter ended.

To open the second quarter, BC mounted a drive, but a Brian St. Pierre pass was picked off at the BC 21 and returned for a touchdown by Rashidi Barnes. BC was unable to convert a first down on its next possession and CU's Ben Kelly returned the punt 88 yards for another Colorado touchdown.

The Eagles showed they would not give up when George White intercepted a pass from CU quarterback Mike Moschetti and returned it 78 yards for the Eagles' first touchdown of the game. With 7:22 left in the first half, the Eagles trailed by a score of 35-7. The half came to a close, however, with Colorado ahead 45-7.

The third quarter offered much the same, with Tim Hasselbeck and St. Pierre combining to complete only nine of 28 passes.

By the end of the day, Colorado took a convincing 62-28 win back to Boulder.

Aloha Bowl

December 25, 2000 • Honolulu, HI

Boston College 31
Arizona State 17

Boston College put on a second-half offensive explosion to defeat Arizona State by a 31-17 score in the 2000 Jeep Aloha Bowl.

Though Arizona State jumped on the board first, BC was quick to respond with 10 straight points for a 10-7 lead after one quarter. Senior running back Cedric Washington marched into the end zone just 1:07 after the ASU score on a 10-yard run.

After a fumble recovery off a sack of Sun Devil quarterback Jeff Krohn, senior Mike Sutphin connected on a 50-yard field goal to put BC ahead.

Tied at the half at 10 after ASU kicked a 28-yard field goal in the second quarter, BC came out and tallied three successive touchdowns to take a 31-10 lead. Tim Hasselbeck found wideout Dedrick Dewalt for a 58-yard pass completion and a 17-10 lead. Junior Ryan Read hooked up with Hasselbeck on the Eagles' next drive for a 40-yard score and the 14-point advantage.

Leading 24-10 to start the fourth quarter, senior linebacker Ryan Burch intercepted a pass attempt by Griffin Goodman. Washington took over, and after four rushes that gained 28 yards, he ran the final 10 yards into the end zone for the Eagles' final score of the day and a 31-10 lead. ASU added a late score.

Boston College accumulated 180 yards on the ground, including a final 100-yard rushing game (109 yards) for Washington.

Bowl Game History

Music City Bowl

December 28, 2001 • Nashville, TN

Boston College 20
Georgia 16

Boston College snapped its 22-game losing streak to ranked teams with a thrilling 20-16 victory over No. 16 Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl. Consensus All-America tailback William Green rushed for 149 yards, including a seven-yard, game-winning touchdown with 4:43 remaining in the game, to lead the Eagles to consecutive wins in a postseason bowl game.

Although the Eagles were outgained, 410 yards to 306 yards, the team did benefit from two UGA interceptions, two UGA fumbles and two first downs resulting from UGA penalties.

Brian St. Pierre finished with 109 yards and one touchdown on nine completions. Green led all rushers with 149 yards and one touchdown, rushing for his 10th 100-yard game of the season. Fred Gibson was the game's leading receiver with 109 yards on six receptions. Derrick Dewalt made three catches for 62 yards.

Defensively, safety Ralph Parent made 11 stops to lead the Eagles. Defensive end Derric Rossy and Josh Ott each recorded seven tackles. Rossy added a sack for nine yards, while Ott had an interception and fumble recovery. The BC defense had four sacks in the game, including those from Rossy, linebackers Vinny Ciurciu and Scott Bradley and tackle Doug Goodwin. Bradley also had an interception return for 21 yards and one forced fumble.

Motor City Bowl

December 26, 2002 • Detroit, MI

Boston College 51
Toledo 25

Boston College won a bowl game for an unprecedented third year in a row as the Eagles thumped Toledo, 51-25, in the Motor City Bowl in Detroit. Senior quarterback Brian St. Pierre saved his best for last, completing 25-of-35 passes for a career-high 342 yards and three touchdowns as the Eagles capped one of the most successful seasons in their football history.

The game was never close as the Eagles scored touchdowns on their first six possessions. BC took the opening kickoff on its own 24 and marched 76 yards in 10 plays behind the rushing of Derrick Knight, who finished the day with 19 carries for 65 yards and one touchdown.

On the next possession, St. Pierre completed his first touchdown pass of the day to sophomore wide receiver Grant Adams, who finished as BC's leading receiver on the day (five catches, 92 yards, two touchdowns).

After Toledo pulled to within 14-3, the Eagles mounted another impressive drive, culminating in a St. Pierre touchdown pass to another talented sophomore wide receiver, a 40-yarder to Joel Hazard that made the score 21-3.

The Rockets could get no closer the rest of the day.

With the win, the Eagles notched their ninth victory for the first time since 1993. Knight finished the year with 1,432 rushing yards, the third-best total in school history. St. Pierre finished with 48 career scoring tosses, third on the BC list behind Glenn Foley (72) and Doug Flutie (67).

Bowl Game History

Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl

December 31, 2003 • San Francisco, CA

Boston College 35
Colorado State 21

Boston College celebrated New Year's Eve in the City by the Bay by winning its fourth consecutive bowl game, a 35-21 victory over Colorado State in the Diamond Walnut San Francisco Bowl.

The Eagles scored early and often, taking a commanding 21-0 first-quarter lead. Will Blackmon started the game on a high note, returning the opening kickoff to the Colorado State 41. All-time rushing leader Derrick Knight dominated the opening drive and scored from the five to give the Eagles a 7-0 lead with 12:14 left.

The BC defense forced a three-and-out on the Rams' first possession and on the next drive, the Eagle offense drove to midfield where junior quarterback Paul Peterson unleashed a 50-yard TD pass to Larry Lester to go up 14-0.

Colorado State drove to the BC 33 on the next drive, but junior free safety T.J. Stancil snagged the first of his career-high three picks on the day and returned it 54 yards. Four plays later, Knight ran the ball in to give the Eagles the 21-0 lead.

The Rams got on the board in the second with a 12-play, 68-yard scoring drive, making the score 21-7 with 10:24 remaining in the period. CSU's only other scoring threat of the half was thwarted once again by Stancil, who picked off Bradlee Van Pelt's pass in the end zone.

A 40-yard Van Pelt scoring pass with seven minutes remaining in the third trimmed BC's lead to 21-14, but a Stancil interception led to a Peterson-to-Lester 19-yard TD pass to give the Eagles some breathing room and a 28-14 lead.

After an unsuccessful fourth down play for Colorado State, Knight iced the win, marching 28 yards to the end zone. With the win, BC finished the season 8-5, marking the first time in program history the team had won seven or more games in five straight seasons. The team also won its 40th game in five seasons, tying a BC record for wins in a five-year span.

Continental Tire Bowl

December 30, 2004 • Charlotte, NC

Boston College 37
North Carolina 24

In his first game back from a broken finger, senior quarterback Paul Peterson threw for 236 yards as the Eagles won a fifth straight bowl game, beating North Carolina 37-24 in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Redshirt freshman Andre Callender carried the ball 26 times for 174 yards and a touchdown in a balanced offensive effort.

Peterson guided the Eagles to a 7-0 lead on their first drive, an 11-play, 86-yard march that ended with an one-yard touchdown plunge by L.V. Whitworth.

UNC would quickly even the score at 7, but on BC's next possession, Callender dominated an 11-play, 78-yard scoring drive. Peterson completed a two-yard touchdown pass to Grant Adams to give the Eagles a 14-7 lead after one quarter.

Midway through the second quarter, UNC got a break when it recovered a Peterson fumble and, six plays later, UNC's Darian Durant completed a five-yard TD pass to Wallace Wright to knot the game at 14. The Eagles then drove to the UNC 5-yard-line, but Ryan Ohliger's 22-yard field goal attempt was blocked.

The Tar Heels mounted a scoring drive that gave them their first lead, capped by a 51-yard Durant touchdown pass to Derrelle Mitchell. But the Eagles scored with 1:44 left in the half to tie the score at 21 at intermission.

UNC opened the third with a Connor Barth field goal to take a 24-21 lead. As the third quarter came to an end, however, Callender gained 38 yards to the UNC 10, setting up a 1-yard touchdown plunge three plays later that gave BC a 27-24 lead.

The Eagle defense forced a punt on UNC's next drive and BC took over with good field position. On fourth down at the UNC 21, Ohliger faked the field goal and ran for the score, avoiding would-be Tar Heel tacklers on the way and stunning the crowd as the Eagles took a 34-24 lead.

BC's final points came when William Troost hit an 18-yard field goal with 4:09 left.

BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

Bowl Game History

MPC Computers Bowl

December 28, 2005 • Boise, ID

Boston College 27
Boise State 21

Ryan Glasper intercepted a Jared Zabransky pass in the end zone with 37 seconds left to lift Boston College past Boise State 27-21 in the 2005 MPC Computers Bowl.

Playing before a hostile crowd and on the blue turf of homestanding Boise State, the Eagles stunned the Broncos by scoring the first 27 points of the game as quarterback Matt Ryan connected on three touchdown passes, including two to Tony Gonzalez in the first half. Ryan completed 19-of-36 passes for 256 yards, 144 of them going to senior Will Blackmon.

Ryan got the Eagles on the board 3:29 into the first half when he found Gonzalez for a 24-yard touchdown pass. Following a Ryan Ohliger 30-yard field goal, BC linebacker Jolonn Dunbar caused a fumble that was picked up by Ray Henderson and taken to the Broncos 13 yard-line. Ryan then hooked up with Gonzalez on a 13-yard strike to give the Eagles a 17-0 lead.

After another Ohliger field goal in the third quarter, Boise State finally responded with two scores over a span of 2:09.

First, Zabransky hit Drisan James for a 53-yard touchdown with 1:24 left in the third, then the junior quarterback ran for a two-yard score to make it 27-14.

A 92-yard punt return for a score by Boise State's Quinton Jones cut the deficit to six points with 3:51 left in the fourth quarter and set up an exciting finish.

The Broncos began their final drive on the BC 47 with less than two minutes left. Zabransky completed a fourth-down pass to Vinny Perretta for 35 yards and a first down at the BC 14. After a pass interference call put the ball on the five-yard-line, Glasper intercepted Zabransky for the second time to seal the win.

Nick Larkin had two sacks on defense for BC, which had nine total tackles for a loss. Dunbar led the team with 9.5 tackles, and Ray Henderson added 5.5 as the top rush defense in the conference held the Broncos to a mere 43 yards on the ground.

Meineke Car Care Bowl

December 30, 2006 • Charlotte, NC

Boston College 25
Navy 24

Interim Head Coach Frank Spaziani etched his name into the BC record books as the only undefeated coach in school history when he led the Eagles to a 25-24, come-from-behind victory over Navy in the Meineke Car Care Bowl. Spaziani was given the interim title after Tom O'Brien departed for N.C. State and he led the Eagles through their bowl game preparations.

Junior quarterback Matt Ryan was named the game's most valuable player after he completed 20-of-29 passes for 242 yards and one touchdown. Junior tri-captain Jolonn Dunbar was a monster on defense, racking up 14 total tackles, including 10 solos, four tackles-for-loss, a sack and a key fumble recovery.

Boston College scored first when Ryan capped off a 6-play, 37-yard drive with a two-yard keeper. Place kicker Steve Aponavicius, however, missed the first PAT of his career; the Eagles went up 6-0.

Navy responded immediately with a scoring drive of their own. Down 7-6, Ryan's pass was intercepted by Navy's Jeremy McGown. The Midshipmen capitalized when Zerb Singleton rushed five yards for a touchdown. The Eagles fought back, using a 23-yard pass from Ryan to Tony Gonzalez to get to the Navy 1-yard line. Junior Brian Toal took it in for the score one play later to bring BC back within one at 14-13.

Navy struck back quickly, driving 65 yards on six plays for a 21-13 lead. Late in the second quarter, Aponavicius connected on a 26-yard field goal to cut it to 21-16.

Early in the fourth quarter, Johnny Ayers set up an important series of events when he punted 54 yards to the Navy 6-yard line. The Eagle defense held on fourth down, and BC took over at the Navy 36. Five plays later, Ryan connected with tight end Ryan Purvis for a 24-yard scoring strike. When the two-point conversion failed, BC faced a 24-22 deficit.

With Navy trying to kill the clock with less than two minutes remaining, Dunbar recovered a Reggie Campbell fumble at the Midshipmen 36. Ryan completed a 15-yard pass to Purvis to get the Eagles within field goal range. Aponavicius connected from 37 yards as time expired and, almost miraculously, the Eagles had won yet another bowl game.

Eagles in the Pros

Boston College has always been well represented in the National Football League.

In 2006, quarterback Matt Hasselbeck led the Seattle Seahawks to the Super Bowl. In 2005, Dan Koppen slid a second Super Bowl championship ring on his finger as starting center for the New England Patriots.

In 2004, three more Eagles joined the ranks of Super Bowl champions as Koppen, Damien Woody and Mike Cloud were members of the winning New England Patriots squad. Five former Eagles, in fact, were members of squads which played in Super Bowl XXXVIII in Houston, tied for the most of any school in the country. Offensive guard Doug Brzezinski and linebacker Vinny Ciurciu suited up for the Carolina Panthers.

Dave Widell was part of an offensive line that led the Atlanta Falcons to the 1999 Super Bowl. Bill Romanowski earned Super Bowl championship rings with the Denver Broncos and San Francisco 49ers.

As of June 1, 2007, a total of 21 former Boston College players were on active NFL rosters. Their names appear in the box below.

Following is a list of former Boston College players who have played professional football. The list also contains a number of former Boston College players who have served as assistant coaches in the NFL.

The University

BOSTON COLLEGE FOOTBALL

The University

Boston College was founded in 1863 by the Society of Jesus to serve the sons of Boston's Irish immigrants. It was the first institution of higher education to be founded in the city of Boston. Today, it is one of the foremost universities in the nation, with a coeducational enrollment of 14,500 undergraduate and graduate students. Boston College has drawn students from all 50 states and more than 90 countries.

The growth Boston College has experienced has not been just in size, but also in stature and diversity.

Today, it is ranked among the top 40 national universities by U.S. News & World Report. Its Connell School of Nursing and Lynch School of Education are listed among the nation's top 20 graduate programs, also by U.S. News, while its Graduate School of Social Work is among the top 25, its Law School among the top 30 and its Carroll School of Management part-time MBA program among the top 20. Boston College is among the nation's most selective universities, with more than 26,000 applications received for its 2,200-member Class of 2010, and is numbered among the top American private research universities. Its endowment of $1.4 billion is among the nation's 45 largest.

After more than a century of growth and evolution, Boston College holds fast to the ideals that inspired its Jesuit founders. The University today remains focused on its mission of helping students to develop their minds and talents while providing them with the motivation and compassion to use those talents in the service of others.

Boston College is among the nation's most selective universities, with more than 26,000 applications received for its 2,200-member Class of 2010.

| William P. Leahy, S.J. | 1996-present |

"Deeply rooted in its Catholic and Jesuit origins, Boston College offers an education that is distinctive in spirit and content, that is doubly rich with the best of human thought and with the profound insights of faith," writes Reverend William P. Leahy, S.J., who assumed the presidency of Boston College in 1996. "We believe that Boston College provides a transforming experience for young men and women."

A continued expression of this philosophy, based on the Jesuit principle of cura personalis, or care for the individual, is the faculty's dedication to teaching. BC faculty members have been honored for their teaching by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Education, while the University's overall commitment to teaching has been ranked among the nation's top 20, also by U.S. News & World Report.

A Boston College education focuses not only on intellectual development, but also on personal, spiritual and physical development. Students are asked to use their abilities, education and acquired skills to help others in need, whether in Boston or Belize. Each year, more than 5,000 undergraduates give some 375,000 hours of community service in the Boston area, while more than 750 students trade vacation for service during Spring Break. Nearly 2,000 students take part in retreats and spiritual formation activities annually.

Today, the Boston College motto "ever to excel" also extends to a broad array of extracurricular activities and opportunities ranging from sports to the arts. Athletics is integral to the University's focus on the development of the whole person in body as well as in mind and spirit. BC offers 31 men's and women's varsity sports, all of which compete at the NCAA Division I level, and annually has one of the highest graduation rates in Division IA.

BC offers a wide variety of resources that enrich intellectual and cultural life beyond the campus gates. Among these are the Jesuit Institute; Center for Ignatian Spirituality; Boisi Center for Religion and American Public Life; Center for Human Rights and International Justice; Center for Christian-Jewish Learning; Center on Wealth and Philanthropy; Center for Retirement Research; Center on Aging and Work; Center for the Study of Testing, Evaluation and Educational Policy; TIMSS and PIRLS International Study Center; Center for International Higher Education; Burns Library of Rare Books and Special Collections; Robsham Theater Arts Center; McMullen Museum of Art; Center for Child, Family and Community Partnerships; Center for Corporate Citizenship; Center for Work and Family; Center for Irish Programs; Urban Ecology Institute and Weston Observatory.

BC students learn outside the classroom, annually giving more than 350,000 hours of community service in the Boston area.

BC faculty members have been honored for their teaching by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Education, while the University's overall commitment to teaching has been ranked among the nation's top 20 by U.S. News & World Report.

President William P. Leahy, S.J.

William P. Leahy, S.J. became the 25th president of Boston College on July 31, 1996. Born in Omaha, he grew up on his family's farm near Imogene, Iowa. After one year of college at Creighton University, he entered the Wisconsin Province of the Society of Jesus in 1967. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy and a master's degree in United States history from Saint Louis University in 1972 and 1975, respectively. Between 1975 and 1979, he studied theology at the Jesuit School of Theology in Berkeley, California, earning a master's degree in divinity and a master's degree in sacred theology while there. Ordained a priest in 1978, he completed doctoral studies in United States history at Stanford University in 1985.

Father Leahy joined the department of history at Marquette University in 1985 and became a tenured associate professor there six years later. In July, 1991, he was named executive vice president at Marquette, where he served until being named president of Boston College in 1996.

During his 10 years at Boston College, Father Leahy has presided over an institution that has solidified its position among the nation's best and most selective national universities. Since 1996, BC's endowment, sponsored research grants and student financial aid have doubled, and the percentage of student applicants accepted has fallen from 41 percent to 29 percent, while SAT scores have risen by nearly 100 points. In addition, 100 full-time faculty have been added, minority student enrollment in undergraduate programs has climbed from 18 percent to 25 percent and cash gifts to the University have increased from $24 million to $76 million.

In the past 10 years, undergraduate applications to Boston College have grown from 16,500 to 26,500, making BC the fourth most-applied to private university in the United States. Currently, the University enrolls students from all 50 states and 80 countries, and its undergraduates have earned more than 150 prestigious fellowships, including two Rhodes Scholarships. Student-athletes at BC succeed in balancing the demands of academics and athletics, and BC consistently ranks among those universities with the highest NCAA graduation rates.

The University has also recently acquired 46 acres of adjacent land from the Archdiocese of Boston and a 78-acre retreat and conference center in nearby Dover, Massachusetts.

During the past two years, the Boston College community has been engaged in a comprehensive assessment and planning effort and the development of its next strategic plan. This plan will build on Boston College's strengths and accomplishments of the past 35 years and will focus additional resources on undergraduate liberal education and formation, as well as integrated science research and teaching. The University also intends to increasingly apply the strengths of its professional schools to critical societal issues, and foster even more international links. Boston College intends to remain faithful to its Jesuit, Catholic heritage and to become the leading Catholic university and theological center in the world.

Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo

Gene DeFilippo and Boston College Athletics could be the proverbial "perfect fit."

Since DeFilippo became Director of Athletics on September 16, 1997, he has led the BC athletics program to a dizzying and unprecedented period of innovation, growth, fundraising, athletics and academic success. DeFilippo has made a significant impact on the program internally, in the Boston community, and from a national standpoint while molding it into one of the nation's elite both on and off the playing field. This past year, he led the program through one of the most significant periods in its history as it transitioned to full membership in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

DeFilippo is credited with spearheading efforts to strengthen BC's athletics program in a number of areas, including facilities, fundraising, staffing and academic support. Boston College student-athletes' achievements in the classroom have become an immense source of pride for the University and its supporters. The Office of Learning Resources for Student-Athletes recently moved into a brand new home in the Yawkey Athletics Center. Under DeFilippo's leadership, 372 BC student-athletes maintained a grade point average of 3.0 or better during the 2005-06 academic year, earning the Athletic Director's Award for Academic Excellence. The football team won the 2004 American Football Coaches Association's Academic Achievement Award with a 100 percent graduation rate and BC's graduation rate for all student-athletes has consistently ranked in the nation's top ten. Also under DeFilippo's leadership, U.S. News & World Report honored Boston College as one of the top 20 athletics departments in the country.

DeFilippo has restructured the athletics program and hired top-notch administrators. He initiated an impressive overhaul of BC's athletics facilities that includes new football practice facilities, lighting, scoreboards and other improvements at Shea Field, renovations to Conte Forum, including a new sound system, floor and video boards, two new soccer fields on the Newton campus, new Field Turf for Alumni Stadium, and an air-inflated bubble to cover the stadium turf to provide an indoor practice facility for all sports during the winter months.

DeFilippo was instrumental in raising money to build the privately funded $27 million, 72,000-square-foot varsity athletics center in the north end zone of Alumni Stadium. The Yawkey Center houses the football program, the Office of Learning Resources for Student-Athletes, and a large function area for general University use, freeing up critically needed space in Conte Forum for women's athletics and other Olympic sports teams. After football moved into the Yawkey Center, in fact, work began on a multi-million dollar renovation to Conte Forum to provide additional locker room and office space for many of BC's 31 varsity sports.

DeFilippo renamed the Athletics Association's fundraising arm (formerly Blue Chips) in honor of longtime Athletics Director Bill Flynn. Alumni, parents and friends of Boston College Athletics contributed a record $15 million in 2006, highlighted by 45 commitments of $100,000 or more, the most six-figure gifts in the history of BC Athletics, representing an increase of more than 100 percent from just two years ago.

Anne and Gene DeFilippo cemented their commitment to Boston College this past January by announcing their pledge of $100,000 to endow a scholarship. The scholarship will be awarded annually to a female student-athlete who demonstrates outstanding academic achievement and financial need. "This is my ninth year at Boston College and Anne and I both are totally committed to this institution and we believe wholeheartedly in what Boston College stands for," DeFilippo said. "Boston College has been so good to us that we wanted to give something back and this is a great opportunity for us to do it."

In athletics competition, DeFilippo has overseen some of the most successful seasons in Boston College Athletics history. During the 2005-06 season, a record 10 BC teams finished in the nation's top 25. The 2005 Eagles football team capped a marvelous run by appearing in a school-record seventh consecutive bowl game and winning its sixth straight. The men's and women's basketball teams both advanced to the NCAA's Sweet 16 and the men's ice hockey team advanced to the national championship game.

DeFilippo is extremely active on the national scene. He is the past president of NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics), the nation's Division I-A Athletics Directors' organization, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Football Foundation and College

DeFilippo led BC in its transition to full membership in the Atlantic Coast Conference, which became official on July 1, 2005.

Director of Athletics Gene DeFilippo

Football Hall of Fame, where he also is a member of the Honors Court. He is also a former representative to the NCAA Division I Management Council.

DeFilippo was named the 2000-01 Division I-A Northeast Region NACDA/Continental Airlines AD of the Year. He was honored at the annual NACDA convention in Salt Lake City in June 2001. He received the "Penguin of the Year" Award from Youngstown State University in 2003 and the Distinguished Alumni Award from Springfield College in 2001. In April of 2000, he was awarded the "I Migliori" plaque at the Pirandello Lyceum's annual awards banquet, honoring outstanding achievements and exemplary lives of Italian-Americans.

At Boston College, DeFilippo is responsible for the administration and management of a broad-based athletics program committed to the pursuit of excellence in both intercollegiate competition and academic achievement. The Boston College program is comprised of approximately 700 student-athletes participating in 31 men's and women's varsity sports, all of which compete at the NCAA Division I level, in addition to a wide variety of intramural, recreation and club sports. Boston College also is a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference and Hockey East.

As both a top-level administrator and a former Division I football coach, DeFilippo brought to Boston College a wide range of experience on and off the field. From 1993-97, he served as director of athletics at Villanova University, where he was named to the NCAA Division I Management Council. At Villanova, his tenure included the 1997 Big East regular-season men's basketball tournament title; 1994 NIT men's basketball championship; two NCAA championships for women's cross country, and a Rhodes Scholar, among others. In addition to the NCAA Division I Management Council, DeFilippo was named to the NCAA Nominating Committee, the NCAA Special Committee on Marketing, Promotions and Licensing and the executive board of the Philadelphia Sports congress.

Prior to his service at Villanova, DeFilippo was both assistant and associate athletics director for external affairs at the University of Kentucky from 1987-93. In that time, annual private donations to the athletics department increased substantially. He also helped to raise funds to build a new basketball training facility and helped coordinate development of one of the largest collegiate radio networks in the country.

Previously, DeFilippo had served as director of athletics at the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg from 1984-87 and as director of administrative services for Vanderbilt University from 1983-84.

His coaching experience includes three years as offensive backfield coach at Vanderbilt (1980-82), which included the 1982 Hall of Fame Bowl. From 1975-79, he was offensive coordinator at Youngstown State University, during which time the team won two consecutive Mid-Continent Conference championships, 1978-79. In 1973-74, he was graduate assistant football coach for the University of Tennessee, coaching in the 1973 Gator Bowl and 1974 Liberty Bowl.

A 1973 graduate of Springfield College with a bachelor of science degree, DeFilippo earned three varsity letters in football during his undergraduate career. He received a master's degree in educational administration from the University of Tennessee in 1974.

DeFilippo and his wife, Anne, are the parents of three children — Christine, a guidance counselor at Beaver Country Day School; John, offensive quality control coach for the New York Giants, and Mary, a senior field hockey player at Boston College.

Athletics Development

Few priorities are as vital to the mission of Boston College Athletics as financial aid. BC will offer approximately 268 athletic scholarships this year totaling nearly $12 million; this is among the largest annual expenses in the athletic department. These scholarships, provided to our nearly 700 student-athletes in 31 sports, would not be possible without the private support of alumni, parents and friends. Last year, BC Athletics raised more than $15 million with a large portion of those funds designated to offset the cost of our scholarships and to enhance the athletics endowment in support of scholarships. The 2005-06 academic year saw 45 commitments of $100,000 or more; the most leadership gifts in the history of BC Athletics.

In addition to funding scholarships, the Flynn Fund has supported countless facility improvements over the years. The football program moved into the $27 million Yawkey Athletics Center in 2005. This 72,000-square foot facility, which also houses the Office of Learning Resources for Student-Athletes, was the first building on the Boston College campus to be funded entirely through private support.

Throughout the 2005-06 season, many areas of Conte Forum have been updated and renovated. The women's basketball program moved into a new suite in 2005. Many of our Olympic Sport staffs also received new offices. Summer construction was completed on a new men's basketball suite and locker room. 2005 saw the construction of a field hockey and women's lacrosse turf field on the Newton Campus. In 2004, FieldTurf, a state-of-the-art synthetic grass-like surface, was installed in Alumni Stadium and the baseball field received a new scoreboard.

For further information about becoming involved with the Flynn Fund please call 617-552-0772.

Establishing An Endowed Fund

Opportunities exist to establish a named endowed fund that will benefit our student-athletes perpetually. An endowment is a donation, which is invested, and the interest generated from the principal is used to fund a specific need of the Athletic Department in accordance with the donor's wishes, i.e. athletic scholarships, coach's salaries, operating expenses, etc. Donors who provide a gift to fund an endowment have the opportunity to permanently link their name or a loved one's name to Boston College Athletics. Endowments can range from a $1,000,000 coach's endowment, to a $900,000 fully funded athletic scholarship, to a $600,000 tuition scholarship, to a $100,000 partially funded scholarship. An endowed scholarship gift can be paid over a period of years and will establish your commitment to Boston College Athletics in perpetuity.

Donors who participate in the endowed scholarship program are invited to a University gathering each fall to meet the recipient of their fund. They receive annual reports on their recipient as well as the performance of their fund. Endowed Scholarships are an everlasting way to maintain a relationship with Eagles who wear the maroon and gold.

For information on establishing an endowed fund please contact any member of our staff at 617-552-0772.

The William J. Flynn Fund

Boston College and the Athletic Department announced the establishment of the William J. Flynn Fund in 1998. The Flynn Fund replaced Blue Chips as the central way in which individuals can support Boston College Athletics.

Bill Flynn '39 was associated with Boston College Athletics for nearly seven decades as a student-athlete, faculty member, coach and athletics director. During that time his loyalty, dedication, foresight and integrity were examples of the highest qualities in intercollegiate athletics. Flynn served as the Director of Athletics at Boston College from 1957 until 1991. The Flynn Fund will always serve as a reminder to donors and student-athletes that his dedication to Boston College was the foundation for decades of institutional success.

The Flynn Fund Scholar-Athletes Program

In lieu of a multi-year commitment for an endowment, you may choose to participate in the Flynn Fund Scholar-Athletes Program. With a gift of $25,000, a donor may fund the scholarship of a single student-athlete in any athletics program for an entire year. The gift provides the University with resources it can use immediately to provide financial-aid to one of our 700 student-athletes.

The student-athletes are informed of their scholarships, and the donors receive information about the student-athletes who benefit from their generosity. Donors are invited to an annual gathering with the student-athlete they support where they will meet the recipients who have benefited from this program. This initiative enables donors to make a direct and immediate impact on BC's ability to provide scholarships.

To become a Flynn Fund Scholar-Athlete Donor please call 617-552-0772.

Former Boston College Football Players Giving Back

A number of former Boston College football players have been extremely generous to Boston College Athletics. This spring a plaque was installed inside the new football locker room bearing the names of approximately 400 former football players who contributed to the Yawkey Athletics Center. Some of those players have made leadership gifts to BC Athletics and chosen to endow scholarships while others designated their gift for the Yawkey Athletics Center.

We are extremely grateful to the following former football student-athletes who have chosen to make leadership gifts to BC Athletics.

Tom Condon '74

Scott Harrington '85

Peter Cronan '77

David Nugent '87

David Donovan '87

Jon Schoen '83

T.J. Fitzpatrick '84

Charles P. Smith '66

Ted Gaffney '86

Steve Strachan '85

Scott Gieselman '85

John Walsh '65

John Wisniewski '50

Dave Nugent '87 and his wife Michelle committed $250,000. A portion of their gift will augment their already established endowed scholarship fund and the remainder will support the Yawkey Athletics Center.

John Wisniewski '50 and his wife, who committed $400,000 to endow a football scholarship in honor of his 50th reunion.

Scott Harrington '85, who lettered from 1981-84 and was captain of the football team in 1984, and his wife, Kathy '87, made a commitment to support the Yawkey Athletics Center.

Media Information

Credentials

Credentials for all Boston College home football games are issued to working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Please direct credential requests to Chris Cameron via e-mail (came-roch@bc.edu) or fax (617-552-4903) at least two weeks in advance of all home games.

Boston College follows the guidelines set forth by the NCAA in governing the issuance of credentials. Season credentials will be issued only to daily newspapers and television/radio stations that cover Boston College on a regular basis. Otherwise, additional television/radio stations, weekly newspapers and Internet services will be granted credentials on a single-game, space-available basis.

Assignment of working press, scouting seats and photo access will be allocated according to the following priorities: 1. Frequency of coverage of teams involved; 2. Deadline and transmission requirements; and 3. Circulation.

If time permits, credentials will be mailed; they also may be picked up in the Media Relations office. All others may be claimed at the Media Will Call window at Gate C.

Press Parking

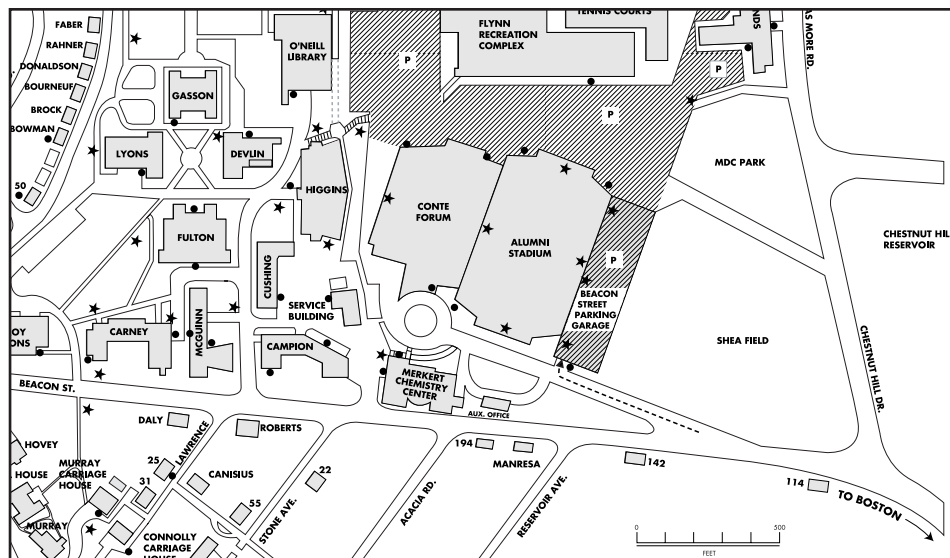

Press parking is located on the top level of the Commonwealth Avenue parking garage. A limited number of parking passes will be available for each game. It is recommended that parking pass holders arrive no later than one hour prior to kickoff to ensure a parking space.

Media members holding press parking passes must enter through the main gate of the University on Commonwealth Avenue and follow the signs for the Media Parking area.

Press Facilities

Located on the west (campus) side of the Alumni Stadium playing field, the BC press box features seats for writers and scouts, a network television broadcast area, five radio booths and a photo deck.

Writers, scouts and game operations personnel will be assigned to the sixth floor level of the press box and television film crews, radio crews and home and visiting coaches will be on the fifth floor level.

Photographers

Photographers (both still and television) are permitted to work along the sidelines except for the marked area reserved for the team personnel only. This rule is strictly enforced. Television and film crews also may shoot from the photo deck, located on the fifth floor of the press box.

Photographers and videographers must wear issued identification armbands, which may be obtained with a valid photo I.D. at the Media Will Call booth at Gate C.

Photographer/Videographer Work Area

A photography/videography work area is located on the west side of the concourse area of Alumni Stadium on football game days. Ethernet ports, telephone and electrical access, along with work space, are provided. Check with the Media Will Call attendant at Gate C for directions.

Radio Broadcasts

Radio booths are available for the visiting commercial and student stations on the fifth floor of the press box. Telephone lines have been pre-installed in each booth. Stations wishing to broadcast a game should contact the BC Media Relations office at 617-552-3004 at least two weeks prior to the contest. The fee is $75 per line.

TV Broadcasts

A 21 x 21 permanent network television broadcast booth is located at the midfield point on the fifth floor of the press box. This location, along with permanent camera locations on the 20-yard-line points, the north end zone and the field, have been pre-wired with multiple tri-axial cable drops. Any network production unit televising a game or event from either Alumni Stadium or Conte Forum must use this pre-installed cable.

Postgame Interviews

The Boston College locker room is closed to all members of the media for all games, home and away. Head coach Tom O'Brien and requested players will be available for interviews following a brief cooling-off period. Following home games, O'Brien will address the media in the football meeting room in the Yawkey Athletics Center. BC press box personnel will provide instructions for accessing the area.

Media wishing to interview players should notify appropriate members of the BC Media Relations staff prior to the conclusion of the game. Every effort will be made to bring requested players to the interview room.

Visiting teams will conduct their postgame interviews in the Conte Forum Media Center, located on the first floor and accessible via the south elevator.

Tom O'Brien Conference Call

Coach Tom O'Brien conducts a media conference call at 4 p.m. each Sunday during football season. Contact the Media Relations office for the number.

O'Brien also participates in the weekly ACC teleconference each Wednesday. Media wishing to participate should call the ACC office for the number.

Player Interviews

Media members wishing to interview members of the BC football team must arrange all interviews through the Media Relations office. In general, interviews during game weeks will be arranged between Noon-2:00 p.m. on Wednesdays (print media) and 2:50-3:20 p.m. on Wednesdays or Thursdays (electronic media). Please request all interviews at least 24 hours in advance. Players will not be available to the media for post-practice interviews.

Practices

In general, BC practices are closed to the media and general public. Videographers or photographers wishing to shoot practice may do so during the first four practice periods on Wednesdays and Thursdays (please contact the Media Relations office in advance). Media may watch practice on Wednesdays only (contact Media Relations in advance) with the understanding that no injuries are reported. BC coach Tom O'Brien will provide an injury update and probable depth chart for the upcoming game on Thursday of each game week.
